

Casa Jilguero

Region: Costa del Sol Sleeps: 12

Overview

An oasis of luxury and opulence, Casa Jilguero offers a stunning holiday retreat. Located a short distance from the beautiful beaches of Benalmadena. With breath-taking views, luxury furnishings and stunning, spacious living areas, every care has been taken to make your holiday as special as possible.

The main living and dining space is grand and spacious, with lavish features that give a unique air of indulgence to space. There are three large sofas, perfect for gathering around and socialising as a group. The circular dining table is positioned under a double-height ceiling, with two storeys of windows allowing sunlight to flood into the room, with views looking out in all directions. This unique room sets the scene for unforgettable evenings, special celebration meals, and making every aspect of your holiday feel like a real treat!

There is the second lounge, so one living area can be filled with lively conversations and games, whilst the other can offer a tranquil space for quiet reading and evening movies. The kitchen is large and spacious, with a family-friendly feel and charming views out to the terrace. A breakfast table and bar encourage kids and the rest of the adults to gather around whilst the nominated chef works their magic, creating delicious family feasts for the whole group.

Throughout the villa, there are six stunning bedrooms, including four double rooms with modern en-suite bathrooms, a twin room and a kid's room with two pull out beds. Each of the rooms has its own beautiful style, designed to provide for your every comfort, making each night's sleep feel luxurious.

Whilst the villa is spectacular throughout, the pool and terraces are truly what set it aside. The main pool terrace flows out from the living areas, towards the stunning sea views on the horizon. The undisturbed views from the terrace cannot be rivalled, with peaceful seating areas and sociable dining spaces. In the evenings the balcony is quiet and tranquil, perfect for sharing a bottle of local wine, whilst the last of the evening sun leaves the night sky!

Casa Jilguero truly offers you a unique and special holiday location, the perfect spot for creating unforgettable memories with your loved ones.
