

Villa Albarino

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 4

Overview

Nestled in the pretty village of Ribadumia, in the heart of Rias Baixas, Villa Albarino offers guests a relaxing and memorable home away from home. Sleeping up to four guests, this two-bedroom property is ideal for families, friends or multiple couples wanting to experience what glorious Galicia has to offer. Taste the famous Albarino wine, relax along the stunning beaches and visit the beautiful Natural Parks located very close by.

Recently renovated to a very high standard, these wooden-clad features stylish decor and pops of colour, adding oodles of character and a homely feel. The exterior resembles a Canadian style home, while the interior was decorated with Nordic inspiration and industrial touches. The modern features provide a comfortable and functional environment; downstairs, there is a modern and fully-equipped kitchen featuring state-of-the-art appliances. There is also a lovely and bright open-plan living/dining area, where guests can dine and relax together after a lazy day in the hot Galician sun. Both of the bedrooms are comfortable and stylishly designed, each with their own well-equipped en-suite bathroom. One has a double bed and the other has twin beds - the perfect set up for families with children.

Outside, there is a lovely garden with a large gated saltwater pool, overlooking the beautiful surrounding vineyards. The pool is surrounded by a perfectly manicured lawn, perfect for outdoor play! There is also a lovely outdoor barbecue and dining area. By day, kick back on a sun lounger around the pool, dip your toes into the cooling waters or explore the rural grounds. When meal times call, pull up a wooden chair around the alfresco table and enjoy a delicious meal, prepared on the barbecue. This stylish property offers guests a relaxing and tranquil stay for large groups of guests; with modern interiors great facilities and a fantastic location, Villa Albarino has everything guests could want in a holiday home.

Location & Local Information

Galicia itself is a hidden gem, and still remains largely off the typical tourist trail, making it an ideal destination for an authentic Spanish retreat. Villa Albarino is located in a quiet village, in Ribadumia, where guests can walk to the local shops, restaurants and supermarkets, or venture further afield to Pontevedra, just a twenty-minute drive away. Santiago de Compostela is just under an hour's drive, and offers a fantastic array of things to do and see. Just 4km away, Cambados is located in the 'Ría de Arousa', this seafaring town enjoys a rich architectural wealth as the 'Plaza de Fefiñáns', ruins of Santa Mariña Dozo, San Sadurniño's tower, A Pastora's viewpoint and its cobbled streets

Ribadumia is just one of many little villages in Galicia, set amongst vineyards and woods, and known as being where some of Spain's best white wines are produced within the Rías Baixas region, meaning wine tours are plentiful here! A very peaceful spot, the nearest shop is 3.6 km and bar and restaurant at 2 km. The church, originally Romanesque, is definitely worth a look. The delightful old town and port of Cambados, capital of the Albarino area, is seven kilometres away, and with a covered market and two weekly markets should provide all you need in the way of shopping. The fish market at the busy resort of Sanxenxo is also highly recommended.

The city of Pontevedra is a mix of old and new, with several museums and historic sites to visit. Enjoy the restaurants and tapas bars located in the old and newer parts of the city, where traditional and delicious cuisine can be found. Pontevedra has been awarded with many international prizes for its urban development. The paved streets have been mostly pedestrianised and the buildings of the historic centre are not only beautiful, but full of life every day of the year.

Santiago de Compostela has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, and is considered as one of the most beautiful urban areas in the world. There are many reasons to visit this city: history, nature, leisure or gastronomy are some of the things that tourists can enjoy. Visit the famous cathedral, Saint Sign of Santiago, and get lost in the narrow streets and squares that make up its historic quarter with centuries of history and majestic buildings, many of them from medieval times.

Santiago's food market is a fascinating, always lively scene, very clean, with masses of fresh produce from the seas and countryside attractively displayed at 300-odd stalls. Stock up on Tetilla cheese, cured meats, sausage, fruit, empanada (pastry pie) or the tasty take-away dishes of Cocina María for a picnic. Numerous bars and cafes line the street outside, and there are several more within the market itself, including a wine bar in the central alley.
