

Casa Corunna

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 4 - 8

Overview

Situated just a short walk away from the beach, this unique ecological villa was built in 2015, and offers guests a unique and relaxing stay. Built with environmentally-friendly materials, Casa Corunna offer guests incredible views of the surrounding countryside all the way down to the estuary. With three bedrooms, Casa Corunna sleeps up to eight guests comfortably, providing an ideal holiday home for families, groups of friends or multiple couples to spend some quality time together.

Built into a hillside, this bright and airy wooden-clad house blends in with the surrounding woodland and provides a comfortable and homely environment and an abundance of space. The central living space is set on the upper floor, offering guests unparalleled views of the beautiful woodland and coastline. Here, guests will find a spacious open-plan lounge and dining area, perfect for getting together and spending some quality time. There is also a modern and fully-equipped kitchen, featuring up-to-date appliances and plenty of prep space. Large windows allow plenty of light to stream into the property, providing a seamless blend between the interior and exterior. A glass balcony wraps around the top floor of the house, with a lovely outdoor seating area for guests to spend some time together and take in the glorious views of the surrounding landscape.

There are also three bedrooms, including a master suite with a double bed and private bathroom, and two twin bedrooms that share a bathroom. There is also a double sofa bed available for two additional guests. All of the bedrooms have been finished to a high standard, providing a comfortable and private sanctuary for guests to retreat to after a long, lazy day in the sun. Outside, the little garden backs into the surrounding forest, enjoying a totally peaceful and serene environment. There is also barbecue facilities, for guests to prepare and enjoy delicious alfresco meals. The fenced private pool will provide hours of fun, and guests will truly feel at one with nature here at Casa Corunna. With beautifully landscaped rockeries, tranquil surroundings, incredible sea views and a fantastic location, guests will truly feel at one with nature at Casa Corunna.

Location & Local Information

Galicia is a hidden gem, and still remains largely off the typical tourist trail, making it an ideal destination for those seeking a beautiful Spanish retreat. Set on the edge of a small Gallician village steeped in history, Casa Corunna is just a few minutes' walk to the local beach of Playa de Broña, and just 1km from Ría de Muros e Noia, the most remote of the four Rias Baixas regions. The Ria contains the towns of Muros and Noia, both gems, steeped in history and still retaining all their historical charm.

Casa Corunna is just a short drive to the local supermarket and amenities and surrounded by wonderful scenery. There are plenty of local restaurants and cafes along Playa de Broña beach for guests to enjoy, as well as many other beautiful beaches just a short distance away. Take a drive along the coastline and visit the local beaches of Rias Baixas.

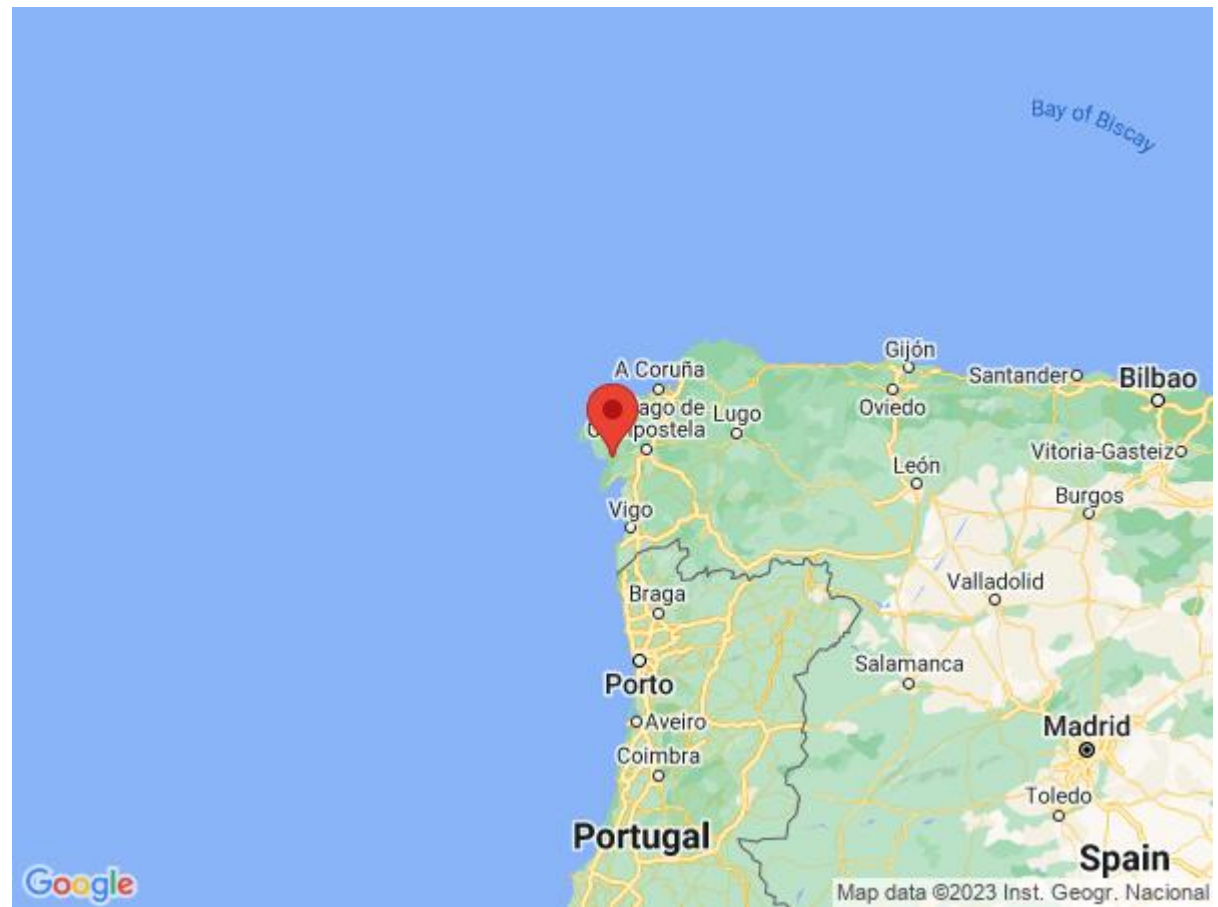

The closest airport in Spain is Santiago de Compostela Airport 42km away. Whilst here, you might want to pay a visit to some of the following locations: Noia, Outes, Porto do Son, Muros and Mazaricos.

There are several UNESCO world heritage sites nearby. The closest heritage site in Spain is Santiago de Compostela, just over an hour away. A day trip here would certainly be a memorable one; history, nature, leisure or gastronomy are some of the things that tourists can enjoy. Visit the famous cathedral, Saint Sign of Santiago, and get lost in the narrow streets and squares that make up its historic quarter with centuries of history and majestic buildings, many of them from medieval times.

Santiago's food market is a fascinating, always lively scene, very clean, with masses of fresh produce from the seas and countryside attractively displayed at hundreds of stalls. Stock up on tetilla cheese, cured meats, sausage, fruit, empanada (pastry pie) or the tasty take-away dishes of Cocina María for a picnic. Numerous bars and cafes line the street outside, and there are several more within the market itself, including a wine bar in the central alley.
