

La Nautique

Region: Saint Tropez Sleeps: 8

Overview

In an exclusive setting in the hills behind Saint-Tropez, this outstanding villa offers sophistication and a high level of comfort on the prestigious Côte d'Azur.

As you sit out on the upper terrace with a chilled glass of local rosé, looking out towards the bay of Saint-Tropez, you will realise what a special place this is. The open-plan living space is filled with light flooding in from a terrace on either side; relax on the elegant sofas admiring the nautical theme around you. The beautiful and characterful kitchen is a chef's dream and feasts of local delights can be served on the al-fresco dining terrace as you gaze towards the Mediterranean.

The master bedroom offers luxury not only with a sumptuous double bed but also a decadent bath where you relax with a sea-view. Three other bedrooms downstairs, all air-conditioned, offer comfort and style with their own en suite shower rooms and two with doors leading out to the beautiful pool terrace.

The heated swimming pool and surrounding decking offer a wonderful place to relax on the sun loungers or cool off in the water after a day out exploring and the sauna adds an extra touch of class. For a change of scene, wander over to the 5* luxury hotel, who manage La Nautique, and bathe in their 20m long swimming pool. You can also arrange a spa at the wellness centre and dine in their excellent restaurant with its panoramic terrace. As the day ends, enjoy a cocktail in the hotel's bar before returning to La Nautique to gaze at the stars on a warm summer evening from your private terrace.

Only 4km from Saint-Tropez, you can be exploring the charming fishing village in no time. Discover historic gems in the old quarter, pick up some local produce in the atmospheric market or dine in one of the many upmarket restaurants including the famous Michelin starred La Vague d'Or. There are some wonderful boat trips to discover this glorious part of the French Riviera or the hotel concierge can arrange yacht hire for you for magical days out with your own skipper and crew.

Helicopter tours are another fantastic way to see the stunning landscapes of the Côte d'Azur and its incredible hinterland with trips taking you as far as Monaco and Cannes. Or you may just prefer a leisurely game of golf on one of the prestigious courses nearby, spend the day at the famous Saint Tropez Polo Club or arrange wine-tasting in an excellent winery in the vineyards near the medieval hilltop village of Gassin.

Not to mention the amazing beaches in and around the bay of Saint-Tropez, from fantastic watersports and the exclusive beach-clubs of Pampelonne to the idyllic coastal walking paths near La Croix Valmer. There's no doubt that La Nautique is an incredible villa in a truly outstanding part of the French Riviera.

Location & Local Information

Set up in the hills of Gassin above the glistening Côte d'Azur, you can enjoy views towards the Gulf of Saint-Tropez from your upper terrace at La Nautique.

The hotel which manages this villa is only 50m away and you can use the hotel's heated swimming pool, spa facilities and high-end restaurant.

There are some small local beaches within a couple of kilometres where you can enjoy views of the gulf or for the best beach head to the famous stretch of sand just south of Saint-Tropez, Pampelonne beach (7km). Here you will find a great range of watersports and also many upmarket beach clubs where you can dine as well as hire sun beds and umbrellas in an exclusive setting, including the famous Club 55 which is known to be a celebrity hot-spot.

Other water-based activities include yacht rental with its own crew for a day out on the Mediterranean including the idyllic island of Porquerolles. Alternatively, you will find many boat trips leaving from various nearby marinas including Saint-Tropez to discover the wonders of the French Riviera and helicopter tours can also be arranged where you can see the glorious coastline from above, even as far as Cannes and Monaco, as well as the rugged hinterland and beautiful perched villages.

The location of this villa is incredibly special, perched in the hills behind Saint-Tropez and also near the charming village of Gassin. The fishing village of Saint-Tropez (4km) is a delightful place where you can explore the historic lanes, watch yachts come into harbour alongside traditional fishing boats, visit the early morning market, sip cocktails in a bar and enjoy the excellent restaurants of this wonderful place which is full of charm as well as having a glamorous reputation.

Head inland and enjoy marvellous views of the gulf and surrounding vineyards from the hilltop medieval village of Gassin (6km). Relax on a shady terrace for a long lunch with a glass of chilled rosé, explore the flower-filled cobbled lanes and visit the art gallery. Wine-lovers should organise a tasting at one of the many local wineries for an excellent choice of Côtes de Provence wines.

Golf-lovers are only a short drive from the wonderful Golf Club Saint-Tropez and other famous places to tee-off include Beauvallon Golf Club (9km) and Golf de Roquebrune Resort (30km). Another special day out is the Saint Tropez Polo Club where you can watch polo whilst enjoying the excellent facilities at the club.

Keen walkers can discover the wonderful paths along the La Croix-Valmer (15km) coastline, taking in breathtaking scenery and stopping off in wonderful beach restaurants or head inland to the beautiful Plaine des Maures. Further afield, the spectacular Verdon Natural Regional Park, just over two hours away by car, offers amazing hiking opportunities, spectacular scenery and canoeing/kayaking in the world-famous gorge.

Closer to home, other lovely hilltop villages include Ramatuelle (9km), Bormes-les-Mimosas (33km) and Grimaud (10km) whilst the French Riviera cities of Cannes (73km) and Toulon (68km) are also worthy day trips.
