

Villa Busaba

Region: Veranda Resort Sleeps: 2 - 3

Overview

Villa Busaba is an immaculately appointed, light-filled home overlooking the stunning Cha Am beach, with sunrise views across white sands and the dazzling ocean.

Executed with architectural prestige, this impressive home is set across two sumptuous storeys, offering modernist, linear architecture comprising clean lines and floor-ceiling glass, as well as slatted timber doors in local woods. Set among the surrounding forest, this home offers tranquillity and serenity that is typical to a Thai home.

Offering one bedroom with a king-sized bed, Villa Busaba is ideal for honeymooning couples (with the option for a third guest or child); setting the scene for the perfect romantic escape, set within seclusion, along with the convenience of the wider resort facilities, guests can truly enjoy the best of both worlds. With five star facilities on its doorstep, the beach just a few paces away, a private pool and all the independence of a home-from-home, as well as the wider resort offering an array of concierge, fine dining, pampering and spa facilities, this option takes the hassle out of travel.

Guests will truly rejuvenate in this delightful abode, wandering onto the balcony with morning coffee, or perhaps an evening cocktail as the sun softens over the bay. From the chic and elegant bedroom, finessed with hotel-grade cotton linen and fluffy robe and towels, guests can enjoy the decadence of a jacuzzi bath, and perhaps follow this with a delicious sea-food meal at one of the resort's restaurants.

The outdoor space at Villa Busaba can only be described as exquisite, with a sleek marble infinity pool framed by elegant palms and chic parasols, guests have private alfresco dining space, from where they can imbibe the sounds and scents of the ocean.

A little haven of style and calm, set within one of western Thailand's finest resorts, on the immaculate Cha Am beach, this little slice of paradise has the "unbeatable" factor.

Location & Local Information

Cha Am, in the western province of Phetchaburi is 170 kilometres south of Bangkok (2.5 hours by car) and 25 kilometres north of Hua Hin, the famous seaside resort. Hua Hin has a well-trodden tourist infrastructure, whereas Cha Am is known for its laid-back style, 5-kilometre long beach lined with Casuarina trees and colourful local culture; it is also popular with Thai holidaymakers.

The resort caters so well to visitors that they barely need to leave the complex. With the Lobby Bar offering wines, cocktails and fresh coffee and the I Sea restaurant and bar, voted Restaurant of the Year by Tatler Thailand, offering a menu created by celebrity chef, culinary enthusiasts will be in paradise.

The resort provides area shuttles around Hua Hin Town Centre and also has parking available. Guests can take part in a cooking class, practise yoga to the sounds of the ocean, or play volleyball by the beach. When it comes to a spot of pampering, massages and facials are available at the Veranda spa.

From pony rides on the beach and thrilling banana boat rides for children to water-skiing, windsurfing and parasailing, Cha Am's beach has ample activities on offer. Sitting back and relaxing with a Thai massage, or simply enjoying the sunset with a cocktail in the evening.

When it comes to local attractions, from shopping to water parks to cultural sites, this region is rich with an offering. Maruekathaiyawan Palace is a Thai-Victorian style summer seaside palace, constructed in the early 1920s designed by an Italian architect and built with golden teak; the royal halls and chambers are set up as a walk-through museum, decorated with royal artefacts and framed vintage photographs.

For a spot of shopping, The Venezia is a vividly coloured replica of the original Venice, in Hua Hin. With 316 shops, the park is immense and even includes a 200 meter 'Grand Canal' - visitors can catch a ride on an iconic Venetian gondola. Colourful Mediterranean style homes, shops and terraces line the canal which finishes with an Italian style garden.

The Cicada Market in Hua Hin is a nightlife market with art and entertainment, offering a variety of wares and relaxed atmosphere. With its distinctly local flavour, Hua Hin and Cha Am are full of authentic Thai experiences, from the historic Hua Hin Railway Station to an excursion inland to Phetchaburi -the 'city of three palaces' - to discover ancient temples, caves and the scenic Phra Nakhon Khiri Historical Park, visitors will find endless attractions whether within the resort or beyond.
