

Villa Cobra

Region: Hvar Sleeps: 6

Overview

With the most fantastic beachfront location, a very short walk along the promenade to Hvar Town, fabulous Villa Cobra is the perfect holiday destination for families or friends not wanting to bother with a car on Hvar Island.

Hvar will leave you with wonderful holiday memories. Its delicious cuisine, breath-taking heavenly scenery and wonderful fragrant pine forests, stunning azure blue seas, mesmerizing sunsets, fantastic nightlife in Hvar town, small historic villages and magnificent mountains will make you want to come back time and time again!

The superb Villa Cobra has three bedrooms – 2 kings and 1 with twin beds sleeping 6, ideal for a family or a group of friends. With its charming stone and shuttered frontage, it looks very traditional though inside it is bright, modern and airy, perfect for chilling out. There is no pool as you literally need to walk out of the house to jump in the inviting water, but there is a lot of enchanting outside space to relax in.

There are a lovely outside eating area and comfy seats to sit down with a glass of the delicious local wine 'plavac' or perhaps a good holiday read or a game of cards. Surrounded by luscious planting, Mediterranean fragrances of lavender, rosemary and pine, it is a lovely peaceful haven.

The airy living space looks out to the sea and is open through attractive arches to the inside dining area. You can prepare a feast in the excellent kitchen if the glorious restaurants in Hvar Town are not beckoning! The 2 spacious king bedrooms have full-length doors with Juliet balconies offering divine views out to the sea. You can watch the glamorous yachts sailing in. The twin bedroom looks out to wonderful pine trees. There is plenty of storage for those holiday wardrobes and two bathrooms. The whole villa is very tastefully decorated.

Villa Cobra is a wonderful alluring property with its beautiful location.

Location & Local Information

Hvar Town is the heart of this vibrant corner of Hvar Island. The villa is just minutes along the promenade to the centre. The Riva Esplanade and harbour where impressive boats sail by is captivating. Hvar has gained a reputation as one of Croatia's trendiest destinations with the town itself becoming a celebrity hot-spot.

Visitors flock to the town in the summer, visiting the beaches by day and then party into the night. The wondrous medieval castle above the town, the 15th-century monastery and the baroque cathedral are truly memorable. Wonderfully tempting shops are also an attraction.

Stunning stretches of the coast can be reached if you want a change from the pebble beaches of Hvar Town. There are boat trips galore across to the stunning Pakleni Islands, especially loved by naturists. There are so many options to enjoy your stay and see more of this gorgeous island.

The UNESCO Heritage site of Stari Grad Plain, a cultural landscape dating back to the 4th century BC is within easy reach. Cycling trips can be taken across the countryside, smelling the magnificent lavender fields and exploring the quaint, charming villages. The pretty town of Vrboska has the nickname Little Venice with its sweet little bridges over the narrow fjord. Humac is a 16th-century village without electricity set upon a hilltop on the remote and beautiful south coast.

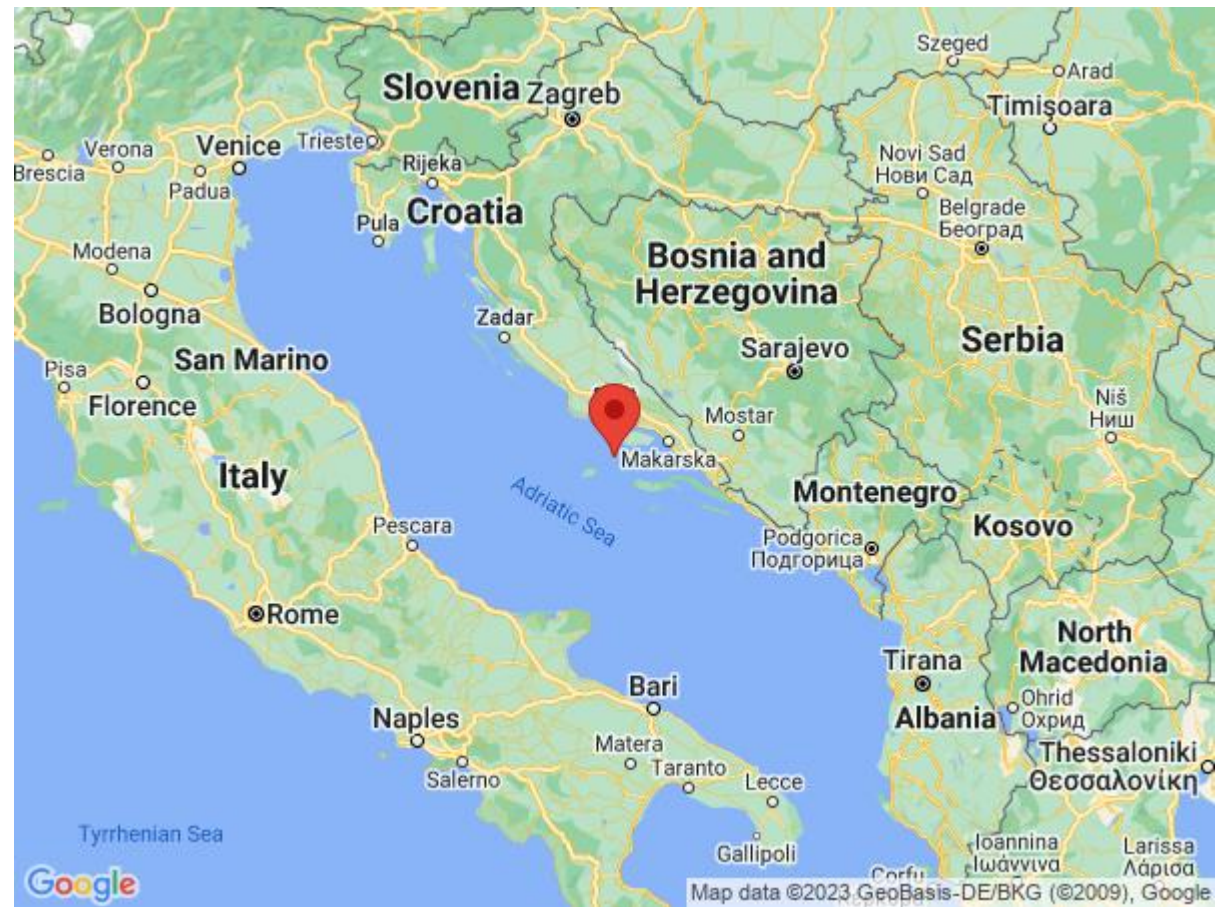

Charming Jelsa is the tourist centre on the north shore of the island. The fragrant smells of the dense pine forest, the nearby wonderful sandy beaches, numerous vineyards and historic cultural landmarks make Jelsa a fabulous place to visit. There are wonderful restaurants to sample delicious food and wine. With its clear azure blue waters, Vitarnja Beach is a beautiful cove near Jelsa which will delight.

Guests holidaying in Hvar usually fly to Split airport and take the catamaran to Hvar Town. You can also book a group speed taxi boat service, taking just 55 minutes from the airport to Hvar.
