Overview

With a magnificent private pool and sundeck, Villa lago is an impressive, sophisticated home with a contemporary style and luxurious furnishings!

In addition to a spacious garden for relaxing and socialising, this villa offers a cosy sofa space facing the large, wall-mounted TV where you can enjoy some light entertainment. There is a tea station as well as a fridge to hand, and you will also find an alfresco dining space on the terrace, with an extensive in-villa dining menu available. All along the front wall are contemporary Asian style glass panels, allowing the light to flood into the room, glinting off the beautifully designed white and polished wood surfaces.

Your stunning bedroom is a sight to behold, with a spectacular draped design around the vast bed at the centre. In the accompanying bathroom, you can enjoy a soothing soak in this vast bathtub, exquisitely built into the structure of the villa itself, as well as a separate walk-in shower, so you can take your pick between an energising shower or unwinding in the bath.

A spectacular passage of glass delivers you out into your serene garden, enveloped in the lush tropical greenery so typical of this part of Ko Samui, where you can enjoy the expansive terrace, decking and of course, five by 3-meter private pool! Endless joy awaits you as you sit back and sunbathe in the poolside loungers or enjoy a refreshing coffee in the intimate shade of the veranda.

The Pavilions Resort offers a vast array of excellent dining and drinking options, including the Scenic Corner poolside restaurant, the Kikusui Japanese Restaurant and The Patio Restaurant, among others, serving a range of international and Thai cuisines, cocktails and coffees.

Other facilities on-site include a fantastic infinity pool, a fitness suite, the tranquil 'Spavilion' spa and several meeting rooms for all occasions. The white sands and crystal blue sea of Lamai Beach on your doorstep is the dream destination for a traditional day of sun, sea and sand, while the villa is also located within walking distance of the vibrant town in which you'll find countless bars and restaurants!
