

Residence Agda

Region: Aphrodite Hills Resort Sleeps: 6

Overview

Within the sophisticated Alexander Heights complex at Aphrodite Hills in Paphos. In the form of a serviced apartment, Residence Agda has all the amenities of a hotel but with more autonomy and flexibility, not to mention the social atmosphere. The villa is close to the resort's Village Square, while guests enjoy access to glorious communal pools including an infinity pool surrounded with rock formation inspired sculptures.

The architecture consists of elegant sweeping arches and peach exteriors, teamed with exposed brick pillars and an intricate private balcony. Dine around the alfresco table overlooking a pool, which has a unique swirly shape - perfect for a refreshing swim. Relax by the pool on a sunbed with a fresh juice and a good book.

Indoors, the living room has stylish jade green chairs that coordinate with the woodland art on the wall. Plush textured grey sofas are perfect for sinking into at the end of a long day sightseeing. Narrow furniture legs add an edgy twist, as do the circular mirrors. The living room has a flat-screen television with international channels. The modern hole in the wall design means you can peep through to the fully equipped kitchen, which is glossy and monochrome. Perfect for whipping up family feasts in a flash, there's an oven, microwave and a dishwasher.

Three charming bedrooms are decorated in a luxurious yet unfussy style with quilted bedspreads and splashes of indigo on the patterned cushions. There are two identical double rooms and one with twin beds, which can be zipped together to make a double bed if required. A touch of greenery comes from the Mediterranean houseplant, while abstract watercolour art adorns the walls.

The bathrooms are also beautiful with marbled warm peach tiles. One has both a bathtub for relaxing soaks and a shower and dual sinks for convenience. The other has a glass-encased shower.

Location & Local Information

The location of Aphrodite Hills could not be more convenient! Paphos International Airport is just 15 minutes away, and you can enjoy the peace and tranquility of Cyprus's south west corner with all the unspoilt attractions and culture it offers. The resort slopes down toward the shimmering waters of the Med, providing stunning views from the villas and PGA National golf course.

The closest attractions to Aphrodite Hills are Pissouri Beach and Village. They avoid being over touristy even in high season and offer a chance to see the traditional character of Paphos; one all too often missed by visitors to the island.

Paphos old town stands as an internationally recognised site of historic and archaeological importance. The Ancient Greeks believed Aphrodite rose from the sea at Paphos, and many ancient sites, castles, and traditional villages exist in and around the town, making for convenient day trips. This has earned the entire town a place on the UNESCO World Cultural Heritage List.

What we love

- The services and extras offered include daily maid service, an Aphrodite food parcel and a kitchen cleaning pack
- The resort has lots of facilities where you can eat, swim and relax in the Retreat Spa
- Views from the residence are extraordinarily beautiful, thanks to the hilltop location
- The twin beds can be zipped together to create a double bed, if required
- Breakfast can be purchased and enjoyed at the Golfhouse
- TV has a range of international channels, ideal if you want to catch up on the latest sport.

What you should know...

- The holiday residences are not connected to the nearby Aphrodite Hills Hotel and guests are not able to use the facilities there
- Children should be careful around the balcony area
