

La Sirenetta

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 9

Overview

This beautiful three-bed apartment is nestled in the heart of Polignano a Mare, a characterful little town on the Puglian coast where you will find authenticity and charm. The sea is only a short walk away, with the picturesque Adriatic shores just waiting to be explored.

Eat breakfast al fresco on the rooftop terrace while taking in the breathtaking views of the town and sea or relax in the sun. The apartment itself is situated inside an old building, perfectly fitting in with its historic surroundings. Curved stone walls conserve the home's natural charm, which is complimented by pretty décor and antique furnishings.

Each room is beautifully designed to ensure you are comfortable. Each bedroom benefits from its own en suite shower room – perfect for groups who want their own privacy when getting ready for a day of exploring. With such traditional yet cosy character, you'll feel at home in this unique and historic home.

La Sirenetta is in the perfect location to explore the vibrant town of Polignano a Mare. Wander along cobbled streets, passing white-washed buildings, discovering many restaurants that serve mouth-watering Puglian cuisine and great local wines. The town is known for its incredible sea views, fascinating history and great nightlife – there are lots of different bars within walking distance where you can spend the evening drinking and listening to live music before returning to the quieter surroundings of your beautiful abode.

Head to Cala Porto in the town, an exquisite pebbled cove backed by dramatic limestone cliffs and watch locals jump off the cliffs into the turquoise waters or enjoy panoramic views of the Adriatic from one of the town's amazing terraces. Exploring further afield, head south to the lovely coastal town of Monopoli or spend the day in the historic city of Bari, just over half an hour away.

You're also a short drive from the incredible town of Alberobello, a UNESCO World heritage site where you can visit many of Puglia's iconic trulli in one of Italy's most famous places. This really is a magical region to explore for those who love authenticity and southern Italian charm.

Location & Local Information

This stunning apartment is located in the heart of Polignano a Mare, a charming little town full of delightful winding lanes and historical sights. Wander down to the town beach where you'll find white pebbles and crystal-clear waters, ideal for snorkelling, also popular with locals who love to jump off the stunning limestone cliffs that back this cove. If you are a fan of modern art, walk around ten minutes to Pino Pascali, the Museum of Contemporary Art and admire the different artists who have taken inspiration from the fishing village and incorporated it into their work.

There are lots of options to explore this coastline. Slightly further north, San Vito is famous for its amazing abbey dating back to the 16th century or head south to the lovely coastal town of Monopoli with its fishing traditions. Conversano also has a great Norman castle to explore. The sea-caves are also well known in this region and there are some wonderful boat tours available.

The great city of Bari, just over half an hour away, is full of historical delights such as the Basilica of San Nicola, the Church of San Sabino and Bari Castle. Explore the beautiful old quarter, Bari Vecchia before heading down to the harbour at lunch to try some amazing fresh seafood or sampling some street food from many vendors. Brindisi, an hour away, is another great place to visit with its lovely sea-front promenade and palm-tree lined boulevards.

This region offers some spectacular coastline, mainly pebbly coves with crystal-clear waters or rock ledges to swim from as well as the odd sandy beach such as Spiaggia di Porto Cavallo only a few kilometers north of the apartment. There are beaches with watersports on offer within a short drive near Monopoli. Other activities include wonderful walks, cycle rides and tours (bike hire is available in the town).

Heading inland, the UNESCO World Heritage site of Alberobello is a must-see for its wonderful trulli or Cisternino is another charming place with great restaurants and summer concerts. The amazing city of Ostuni also has a reputation for great restaurants from Michelin starred establishments to authentic trattorias.

Heading out of Puglia, a wonderful day trip to Basilicata includes a visit to the amazing Matera (80km), one of the oldest cities in the world and now a UNESCO World Heritage site.
