The dining room has a more traditional feel, with an antique hand-painted ceiling and furniture as well as a darker colour palette that makes the room feel intimate and warm, perfect for dinner parties and celebrations with your loved ones.

Through the house, there are five beautiful bedrooms and four contemporary bathrooms. Each of the rooms has its own style and colours, allowing you to pick your own space and make it feel like yours, as you unpack your belongings and settle in. On the ground floor, there is a double bedroom, with the remaining rooms upstairs. These include a master suite, a twin room and two single rooms.

Outside, the villa opens out onto bright terraces, with space to dine outdoors under the star-lit sky and to swim in the private pool, listening to the water cascade down over the infinity edge, whilst gazing to the sea on the horizon.
