Overview

Aidani is a modern, simple holiday home, offering the antithesis of contemporary design combined with traditional Cycladic features, maintaining a welcoming, cosy feel for all guests. Located below the hilltop village of Firon, and part of a complex of four villas, the property boasts two private verandas looking out over the surrounding vineyards to the glistening Aegean Sea in the distance. From the moment you arrive, it feels as though the romance of Santorini has been pulled within the villa's walls, leaving a sense of serenity perfect for romantic holidays and intimate moments with your loved ones.

The villa's modern design adopts the principles of Cycladic architecture, custom-designed to this beautiful setting. The windows frame picturesque views and the interior walls reflect light into every corner of the villa, making the entire space feel bright and airy. All the living spaces are on one floor, with an open-plan kitchen, dining and living room, perfect for relaxed afternoons cooking meals, dining together and enjoying the tranquil atmosphere. The space feels intimate and yet spacious, with contemporary furnishings that softly blend the modern and traditional together.

The property has two double bedrooms, one of which has a loft space with a further mattress each have French doors to the terrace, overlooking the countryside. All the windows have traditional blue shutters too. The beds in each room are incredibly comfortable, with soft bedding that you can sink into each night, adding a sense of luxury to your stay. There is a laid-back, relaxing feel to each of the bedrooms, with room for you to unpack all your belongings and settle in, making yourself at home for the duration of your stay.

Outside, the two verandas encompass the serene atmosphere of the island as a whole. Offering sweeping views out across the vineyards and the sea, with space to dine al-fresco and your own jacuzzi where you can cool off from the summer heat. There are two hydro-massage seats within the pool that make it even easier to relax! With a beach within a short walking distance and the charming whitewashed town of Oia just a 30-minute walk or short drive away, you have everything you need to make your stay magical.

Location & Local Information

Santorini has been a popular holiday destination for years, a beautiful volcanic island rising out of the Aegean Sea, offering dramatic ocean views, breathtaking beaches, famous sunsets, traditional Grecian architecture and fabulous local wineries! During peak season the island becomes busy with tourists, revitalizing the towns and beaches with visitors looking to enjoy the charm and beauty of this island. There are a mix of fine-dining restaurants with traditional Greek tavernas, many positioned in exclusive spots with remarkable sea views!

Aidani is in a privileged setting in the beautiful countryside surrounding Oia. With views to the Aegean Sea across the local vineyards and countryside, every element of this location feels tranquil – a true escape from the hustle and bustle of day-to-day life. The closest of these vineyards is just 10 minute's walk away and has a restaurant, with delicious foods. There are three beautiful villas within this area, perfect if you have multiple families travelling together, although they all offer privacy. Just over a kilometre above is the cute village of Firon, where a few eateries and a local village feel. Take a torch for walking back after supper.

The villa sits just a 30-minute walk, or 5-minute drive from the centre of Oia, so you can stroll in at any time, heading to the supermarket, picking up fresh bread from the bakeries, or enjoy a meal at one of the many local eateries, all serving delicious Mediterranean dishes. Oia is beautiful in itself, with whitewashed houses carved into the rugged clifftops that climb out from the sea. The picturesque and incredibly photogenic town offers a maze of local shops, restaurants, cafes and bars, with a bustling and lively atmosphere that perfectly accompanies the tranquillity of the villa. The sunsets in the town are famous for their beauty, partly visible from the villa, however, we recommend heading into Oia one evening to fully appreciate the beauty of the colours gleaming across the night sky – you could even buy yourself a cocktail to enjoy whilst you watch!

The villa is also just a short walk from the closest beach, so you can wander down at any time, strolling along the sandy shore or dipping in the sea to cool off. This is ideal for families that don't want to be getting in and out of a car all the time.

Other must-do things in Santorini are a Catamaran, boat trip, a wine tour of the island, and a trip to the sunset spot in Oia. There is also horseriding on the beach, that is very popular. After any of these, you'll enjoy escaping back to the tranquillity of Aidani.

What we love

- The villa has a hot tub set into the terrace, This is kept cool for much of the year but can be heated in the cooler months!
- Within less than a 15-minute walk you will find yourself on one of the gorgeous beaches of Santorini!
- The villa has been designed in a beautiful blend of Cycladic architecture and contemporary design, creating a truly serene and beautiful living space.
- There is a lovely winery 5 min walk away, amazing wine tasting flights and delicious food menu. Plus a great place to watch the sun set.
- Walking to the nearby hillside village of Firon means you have plenty of options
- Just the best place to be in Santorini, close enough to Oia to visit but far enough to enjoy peace and nature.

What you should know...

- If you want to explore all the beaches, volcanoes and stunning island features, then you should rent a car for your stay, however if you prefer taxis can be called from the villa.
- Oia is made up of narrow streets and steep steps, so be careful if you having to travel with a baby stroller as it can be very difficult to get around
- You can enjoy a stunning sunset from your terrace, not as good as the best one in Oia, but beautiful & without the crowds.
