

Villa Glasses

Region: Alcudia Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Glasses has been set upon lush green fields, and this three-bedroom villa offers spacious areas and grounds with a backdrop of blue skies, mountains and the beautiful surrounding lands! Book your escape to the wondrous island of Mallorca from this villa!

This villa's architecture pays homage to the tropical style adopted throughout many Spanish islands across the globe! Roofed patios, outdoor grills and rooms that lead into one another through open-plan layouts allow you to have a freeing and relaxed stay!

A lovely and expansive living room will have guests feeling at home in this gorgeous and charming room. Lounge on plump sofas as you snuggle up to watch movies on the television! The villa adopts airy and spacious designs throughout and use of natural stone tiling and wood everywhere help add an added touch of authenticity!

The kitchen sits adjacent to the living room, allowing you to relax before heading into this area to dine! The kitchen is fully equipped should you choose to whip up a mean dish from the fresh ingredients this country proudly offers in nearly all of its stores and markets! Multiple tables within the kitchen make for a great place for meals and days when you need some energy for the adventures that lie ahead!

Downstairs two bedrooms provide different sleeping options. Snooze and laze on a double bed or two single beds under air-conditioning which makes this villa perfect for families and groups who require separated sleeping arrangements! The bedrooms share a bathroom with a full tub and a shower! Head upstairs to another spacious bedroom finished with modern décor of Mallorca ornaments and a double bedroom. The bedroom leads to a private terrace, offering an intimate place for evening drinks and morning brews!

Outdoors the villas glorious design can be truly appreciated! Kick back on cushioned, stylish seats and a daybed under a beautiful and unique patio! Dine alfresco on the dining table by flowers and lush lawn with shrubs and trees! Use the Roman steps or ladder to get into the pool for a splash or soak and have hours of fun on the stunning grounds of Villa Glasses!

Location & Local Information

Mallorca is a jewel of an island, boasting the incredible Spanish culture for you to dine, discover and decompress from the mundane day-to-day. As an island, visitors will meet laid-back and welcoming people as well as an easy-going way of life, allowing you to achieve bliss and wonder in everything you do!

From dining experiences that make diners feel like royalty with expertly designed and served exquisite dishes, to glorious scenes on the shorelines and stunning landscapes, Mallorca surely offers a buffet of experiences!

Set in the northern coast of the island, guests are close to constant shorelines as well as old towns and modern cities for completely different experiences. However, the whole island offers an array of activities to do so you don't have to stick to the north!

With a clear turquoise sea for you to splash in and get your legs wet, to white-sand beaches perfect for dreamy sunbathing scenes across the sea with mountain backdrops, Alcudia Beach is a must-visit upon your stay in Villa Alenia! Just a short drive from the villa, the beach offers one section across its 7km of soft white sugary shores, Playa de Muro, for tranquil spots providing relaxation and together time. The other section of the beach offers amenities and facilities to keep you out of the villa for the entire day!

From meals on the beach to feasts in the surrounding town and indeed across all of the island, guests can explore the cuisine experiences that this jewel of the Mediterranean offers! Try finger-licking food, where you are encouraged to use your hands to preserve the delicate flavours of sumptuous tapas. Known for their vino and drink offerings, from fresh juices to delicious cocktails, all ages and tastes are catered for. Your biggest worry will be which spot you want to dine in!

Alcudia offers visitors to this part of the island, a chance to take a glimpse at the past famous inhabitants of this beautiful landscape! Head to Pollentia Roman Ruins, just a twenty-minute walk or five-minute drive from the villa, where you can explore three different areas where the Romans controlled a thriving city!
