Bernaliss is situated in Puerto del Carmen, a fabulous and sought after region when visiting Lanzarote! The former fishing village has excellent transport facilities as well as a range of things to do, see, eat and drink amidst the splendour of the natural sea and landscapes!

Take a stroll through the town and head to shops and stores, as well as market stalls on particular days to capture the memories of this enchanting island. The town leads to the Old Town Harbour which sits at the southernmost point of the area. Here, the traditional Canarian essence is captured in buildings and restaurants, so why not dine at a typical Lanzarote diner and feast on delicious tapas and heavenly wines! Guests have the opportunity to use boat taxis to visit Puerto Calero Marina, just west of your location, which offers shopping for lovers of clothes and designer-wear or to feast on more familiar foods or exceptionally classy restaurants in this immaculate and beautiful port!

East of Old Harbour Town, a stroll down the shop-lined promenade will take you to Puerto del Carmen's famed beaches. Six kilometres of soft, golden stretches of sand alongside azure crystalline waters of the sea will serve to either keep you entertained or chillaxed for hours! Popular beaches such as Playa Chica have been designed with guests in mind, and you will be able to spend an entire day at this beach!

Kick back and laze in the rays of the sun as you bathe in them on sun-loungers, with the option of parasols for relief or get stuck straight into activities both exciting and more reserved depending on your mood! Or head to quieter beaches such as Medio Beach, a small spot compared to the other beaches offering more peaceful and quieter settings for you to achieve your own nirvana!
