Location & Local Information

Whether you are sun-seeking, wanting to chill on a breathtaking beach, treat yourself to amazing Thai rejuvenating treatments, hike in a fabulous rain forest, feast on world-class cuisine, party on a beach or attend a famous ladyboy show, Koh Samui has it all. It is a perfect destination for a couple wanting a tranquil, interesting break.

Bophut's Fisherman's Village is a charming walking street of hipster cafes and many boutique shops. It was once home to a thriving fishing community and has a warren of narrow alleys. The vibe is super chilled, and it backs straight onto Bophut Beach. A couple of the entrances are marked with arches.

The Elephant Walk in Bophut is a small night market and is a fun and quirky shopping experience. The Lamai Night Plaza is also another shopping experience, and all over there are food stalls with delicious Thai food and so cheap! You can buy lots of little gifts at the night markets. You should stock up on spices so that you can make delicious Thai meals when you are home!

Not far from Villa Oaka and the Celes resort is the magnificent, 12 metres tall, golden Big Buddha on the island Ko Phan. The temple is easily accessible over a causeway. You must make sure you cover your shoulders as it is a spiritual, humble and peaceful place. You will get some fantastic photos! There are many little cafes nearby plus fortune tellers if you feel like some soul searching.

There are many other stunning beaches on the island. Maenam Beach is one of the most popular beaches for its secluded location. Cheweng Beach is the longest beach and Lamai is a very peaceful beach. With its pristine jungles, Taling Ngam Beach is the most picturesque, offering incredible views of the Ang Thong Marine National Park. The Ang Thong National Park is an archipelago of 42 idyllic islands and a must-visit!

Another place to visit is Chaweng with its eclectic, colourful social life. It is absolutely thriving with parties, nightclubs, bars, restaurants and ladyboy cabaret shows. Also, the natural geological formations are known as Hin Ta and Hin Yai rocks or Grandpa and Grandma rocks, which look like male and female genitalia are worth a visit for a giggle!
