Location & Local Information

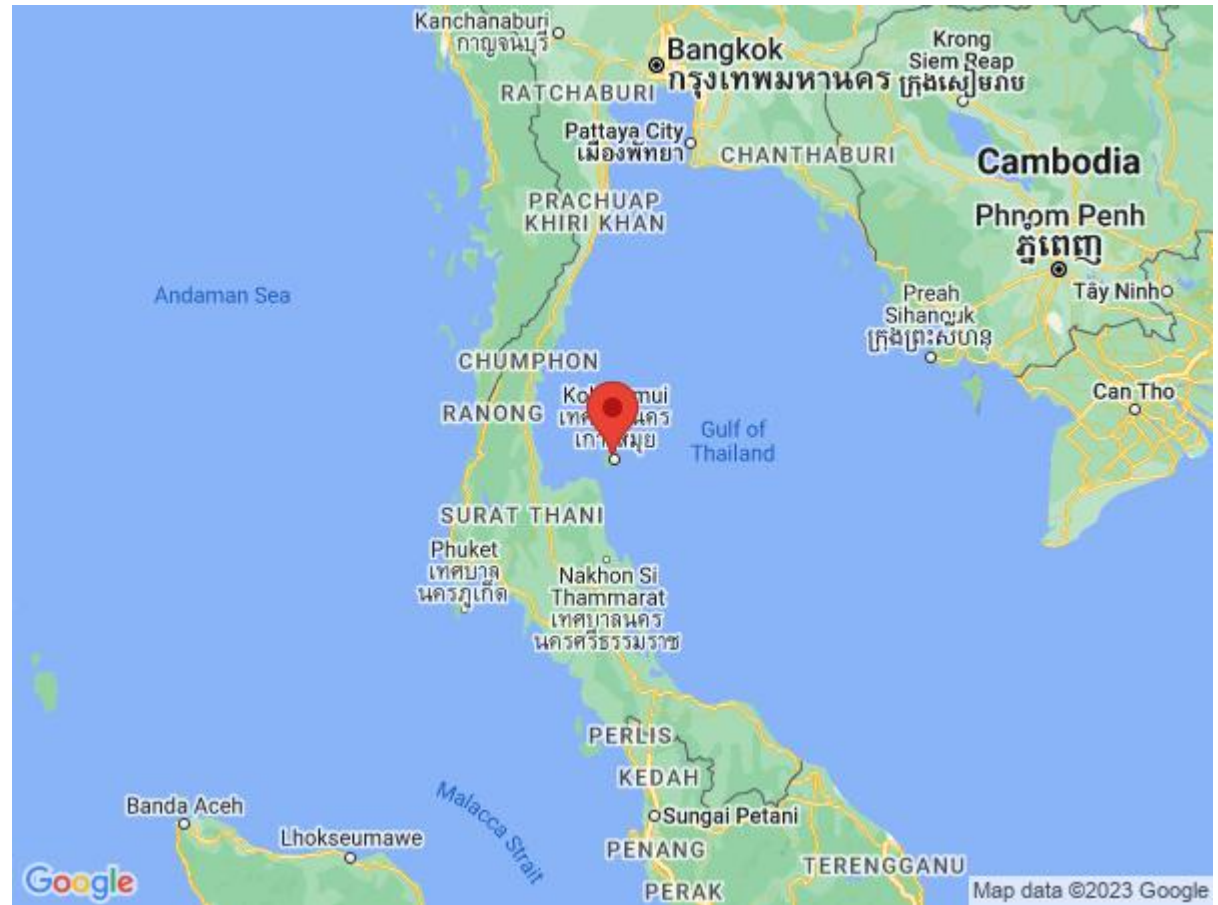

Koh Samui is a picturesque destination with idyllic white-sand beaches, lush rainforest, coral reefs, mountains and so many Buddas to photograph!

A wonderful day out filled with adventure, exploration, stunning exotic land and seascapes, snorkelling in crystal waters and kayaking around mysterious and hidden coves is a day trip to the stunning Ang Thong Marine National Park. You will immerse yourself in the natural splendour of this beautiful archipelago of 42 islands, admiring Monkey Island, Lion Island, incredible rock formations, the natural stone bridge protruding from the sea at Ko Samsao and the amazing Emerald Lake at Ko Mae Ko. At the lake, you can climb to the top and get a breathtaking view of the island. The marine life is spectacular.

Active guests wanting an alternative view of Koh Samui's rich rainforest might enjoy zip-lining between 18 treetop platforms at speeds of up to 50mph at Secret Falls Canopy Adventures. It is thrilling.

As well as chill-out days on Bophat Beach, Maenam Beach is very popular, as is Cheweng, Lamai and Taling Ngam which looks out to the Anghong Marine Park. The beaches all have amazing cafes and bars.

The most popular attraction on Koh Samui is the massive Big Buddha which is not far from the resort. It is 12 metres tall and can be seen from very far away. The Was Phra Yai Temple where it is situated is geared up for visitors with many cafes and market stalls. Visitors also usually head towards the famous Chaweng Beach with its extremely buzzing nightlife. There are incredible beach parties, nightclubs, ladyboy cabaret shows, and so much more. It is certainly an experience!
