Location & Local Information

Villa Hallaca is a part of Casa de Campo, the first and premier resort in the Dominican Republic. Located on the edge of the city of La Romana, Villa Hallaca offers a breathtaking setting on the Caribbean Sea. The resort itself is known for its luxurious amenities and a wide range of activities.

Casa de Campo boasts three magnificent golf courses, making it a paradise for golf enthusiasts. Additionally, the resort provides a variety of sporting facilities, including tennis courts, a shooting range, and an equestrian center. Water-sports lovers can enjoy activities such as kayaking, snorkeling, and deep-sea fishing.

For those seeking relaxation and pampering, the resort features an amazing spa that offers a diverse menu of soothing treatments. There is also a fitness center that provides classes and personal training sessions for fitness enthusiasts.

The beach club at Minitas Beach is a popular spot in the evenings, offering a combination of dining, drinks, live music, and DJ performances with stunning sea views. Casa de Campo also offers several other dining options with a variety of restaurants, bars, and lounges to choose from.

While Villa Hallaca and Casa de Campo provide plenty of entertainment, there are also nearby attractions to explore. The charming village of Altos de Chavon, designed to resemble a 16th-century town, houses a cultural center, archaeological museum, and an impressive 5,000-seater amphitheater. This venue has attracted renowned musicians and performers from around the world.

La Romana and the village of Bayahibe offer vibrant nightlife, with beachfront bars and clubs playing lively dance music. Visitors can also take boat trips from La Romana to the nearby islands of Isla Catalina and Isla Saona, which are known for their excellent scuba diving, snorkeling, and serene beach experiences.
