Location & Local Information

Just 10 minutes from Fuerteventura airport, Caleta de Fuste is a stunning bay with soft golden sands and tranquil waters all year round, thanks to its protected location. The area is perfect for a relaxing holiday, thanks to the tranquillity of the bay. It's also where you'll find the Fuerteventura Golf Club, an unmissable spot for any budding golfer!

Sometimes called El Castillo after the nearby 18th-century fort, this is a great choice for families, with sunbeds and parasols for hire, good public transport connections and a thriving promenade with restaurants and a shopping centre. The bay is also a great location to try windsurfing, sailing or scuba diving, and from the local marina, you can even take trips to swim with sea lions, turtles and dolphins!

What's more, the fabulous little town is just 15 minutes from Puerto del Rosario, the capital of Fuerteventura. The city has around 30,000 inhabitants and is like an immersive Sculpture Park, with over 50 pieces of art distributed throughout its streets and promenade, and there are also over 400 bright, colourful murals across the city centre and further out into the suburbs too!

Across the island of Fuerteventura, you will find countless opportunities for outdoor adventures! Of course, the many miles of stunning long white sandy beaches lend themselves to all kinds of water-sports. Known as the Hawaii of the Atlantic, or 'the European Hawaii' thanks to its crystal clear and warm waters and fabulous surfing seascape, it is a great place for both beginners and veterans to enjoy the waters! You can even take kitesurfing lessons to perfect your skills and learn how to work with the wind and the waves!
