

Manoir Mi-Chemin

Region: Burgundy Sleeps: 12

Overview

This handsome manor house, set in a classified and renowned wine-village, couldn't be better positioned to explore the world-famous vineyards, villages and towns in this beautiful part of central Burgundy.

Located mi-chemin (half way) between Beaune and Chalon-sur-Saône, near the vineyards of Côte Chalonnaise, Manoir Mi-Chemin offers elegance and authenticity alongside contemporary comfort in glorious gardens with a heated swimming pool. The owners have a real eye for detail, as seen through the stunning restoration where they have retained so much period detail such as ornate ceilings, exquisite flooring and splendid chandeliers. At the end of a day exploring, sip fine wine by the fireplace in the high-ceilinged living rooms or prepare feasts using ingredients from local farmer's markets in the perfectly equipped kitchen, fit for a chef.

Six inviting bedrooms, styled with pretty yet simple touches, feature blue shuttered windows peeping out to the glorious gardens and village. Throughout the manoir there is a great feeling of space both inside and out, making it perfect for large families or a group of wine-loving friends. You'll always be able to find a quiet spot in the 2.5 acres of gardens featuring sloping lawns, towering trees, al-fresco lounges and a wonderful heated swimming pool.

This picture-perfect setting allows you to experience true Burgundy; wander out past the characterful houses to fetch morning pastries from the boulangerie and spend evenings in one of the wineries or the village's gourmet restaurant. Use the manoir's mountain bikes to follow the Voie Verte, cycling through vineyards and passing châteaux as far as Chalon-sur-Saône to the south or Beaune to the north. Take the train to the historic city of Dijon or drive to other wondrous places such as Autun and Cluny.

Not forgetting the charming market town of Chagny, under 5km away, with its atmospheric Sunday morning Farmer's market and 100-year old restaurant with three Michelin stars. Staying at Manoir Mi-Chemin is all about authenticity as well as fine wine, gastronomic food and idyllic Burgundy villages in this alluring region.

Location & Local Information

Manoir Mi-Chemin is set in a Burgundy village just a short drive from the popular market town of Chagny, in the Saône-et-Loire department. This is an ideal location for exploring the famous towns and vineyards of Beaune, Chalons-sur-Saône and the rest of the Burgundy wine region.

Wander down into the village, passing characterful shuttered houses and pretty archways, pick up morning pastries or treats from the boulangerie and patisserie or drop into the small supermarket, just a short walk away. The village also has a restaurant and is home to many wineries where you can sample some of the local Côte Chalonnaise wine from vineyards surrounding the village and beyond.

Chagny (4.5km) is a lovely market town, reached by car or bike, and a visit to the vibrant and atmospheric market on a Sunday morning is a must. You'll also find a variety of restaurants serving good, local food as well as the famous 3 Michelin starred Maison Lameloise (make sure you reserve a table in advance!). It's also a nice place for walking and cycling, especially along the Canal du Centre with its pretty towpaths.

Cycling and keen walkers can also follow the wonderful Voie Verte from near the village up to either Beaune or Chalons-sur-Saône, passing vineyards and beautiful scenery.

It's an easy drive (or cycle!) to the riverside town of Chalons-sur-Saône (17km) with its cathedral, museums and pretty old quarter which is perfect for exploring. Stop for a coffee on the charming Place Saint-Vincent or wander by the banks of the Saône where you can take summer boat trips along the river.

Beaune (23km) is the most well known town of this region, around half an hour by car or you could take the train from the local train station just outside the village. The town hosts a wonderful market on a Wednesday and Saturday morning, has a number of great restaurants and wineries and is home to stunning historic buildings, including the much loved Hospices de Beaune.

From here, follow Burgundy's wine road, Route des Grands Crus, passing through idyllic vineyards and pretty wine-towns such as Puligny-Montrachet, Meursault, Volnay and Pommard, all within a twenty-minute drive, as well as many other villages of the Côte de Beaune and Côte de Nuits regions.

Other interesting towns to visit include historic Autun (43km) with its lovely market and Dijon (68km), with its famous mustard stores and beautiful buildings. Nature lovers, in the meantime, should head to the wonderful Parc Naturel Régional du Morvan with its rolling hills, woodlands, streams and plenty of opportunities to hike, mountain bike or even try out some watersports on one of the rivers or lakes.
