As you stroll through the villa there is a careful balance of indoor and outdoor living, with the main social spaces opening out onto the terrace, whilst several of the bedrooms reach out towards the horizon via graceful balconies. The main living area is open plan, with a stretched rectangular shape with large glass doors dotted along one of the long walls. At one end there is a beautifully decorated lounge, with a large corner sofa and elegant chandelier offering a blend of home comforts and stylish sophistication. At the centre of the room is the large communal dining table, with room for ten guests to sit together and share joyful meals, enjoying each other's company away from busy day to day lives. At the other end you will find the contemporary kitchen, equipped with everything you need to prepare delicious meals and two stools at the breakfast bar so others can sit and chat whilst the nominated chef is preparing food.

Upstairs the villa boasts four spacious bedrooms, all with stunning sea views. There is one double bedroom with a private en-suite, the window frames a view of the ocean, so you pull open your curtains and gaze out. The other rooms include two doubles and one single, all with their own private bathrooms and beautiful balconies with breath-taking views. These bedrooms give everyone the chance to enjoy their own space, spending blissful moments alone or as a couple, before heading downstairs to enjoy quality time as a group.

Outside the villa extends out to the horizon, with plenty of seating where you can watch the sunset each night, with the blue sky turning dark orange as the sun drops down towards the sea!
