

Villa Charmolipi

Region: Halkidiki Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Charmolipi is located in a secluded yet luxurious resort, a fabulous beachfront hideaway on the outskirts of the cosmopolitan village of Pefkochori. Villa Charmolipi sits within this exclusive complex of ten villas (each with its own character), offering superior accommodation set amidst fabulous gardens with its own private pool, exclusive for the beachfront villas' guests. Your villa is located within 200m of the resort's private beach with pre-reserved sunbeds and beach bar. Within the complex, there is a tennis court, leisure room with games and a ping pong table available to you at all times.

This spacious holiday home is suitable for up to six guests. As you enter on the ground floor, there is an open plan area with fabulously appointed kitchen, seated dining area, a large comfortable sofa bed, occasional table and tv. This stunning room's outstanding feature has to be the entrance to the terrace, glass the full height of the two floors creating a mezzanine floor for one of the upstairs bedrooms. There is also a bedroom with en-suite facilities and its own terrace.

The upper floor, accessed by an elegant marble staircase is where you find a large shared bathroom and a further two double bedrooms, one with its own balcony.

The villa is beautifully appointed, making use of as many sustainable elements as possible; the stunning wood in the bathrooms, bedroom furniture and the extensive decking around the pool and terrace; brickwork walls within the downstairs open space; fabulous tiling in the bathrooms and floors and the external stonework. The furnishings are all exquisite and of the highest quality, all in gentle neutral tones adding to the contemporary but extremely elegant style of the villa.

Now through the patio doors to the huge, partially covered terrace, perfect for dining, sunbathing and relaxing, the 30m2 swimming pool, barbecue area and garden with extensive lawn. There is screening in place for your privacy while the many young trees and hedges grow to provide a natural barrier. With its close proximity to the beach and the village, Villa Charmolipi offers everything you could possibly want for a fantastic holiday, whether it be relaxing, or action-packed.

Location & Local Information

Villa Charmolipi could not be in a better location. Only 200m from the resort's private beach and a few minutes' ride from the centre of Pefkochori. Pefkochori is a beautiful old village surrounded by pine and olives trees growing down to the sea. Narrow streets, beautiful gardens, cafés and restaurants provide a fun, relaxed atmosphere, it is also quite lively at night, offering a variety of bars.

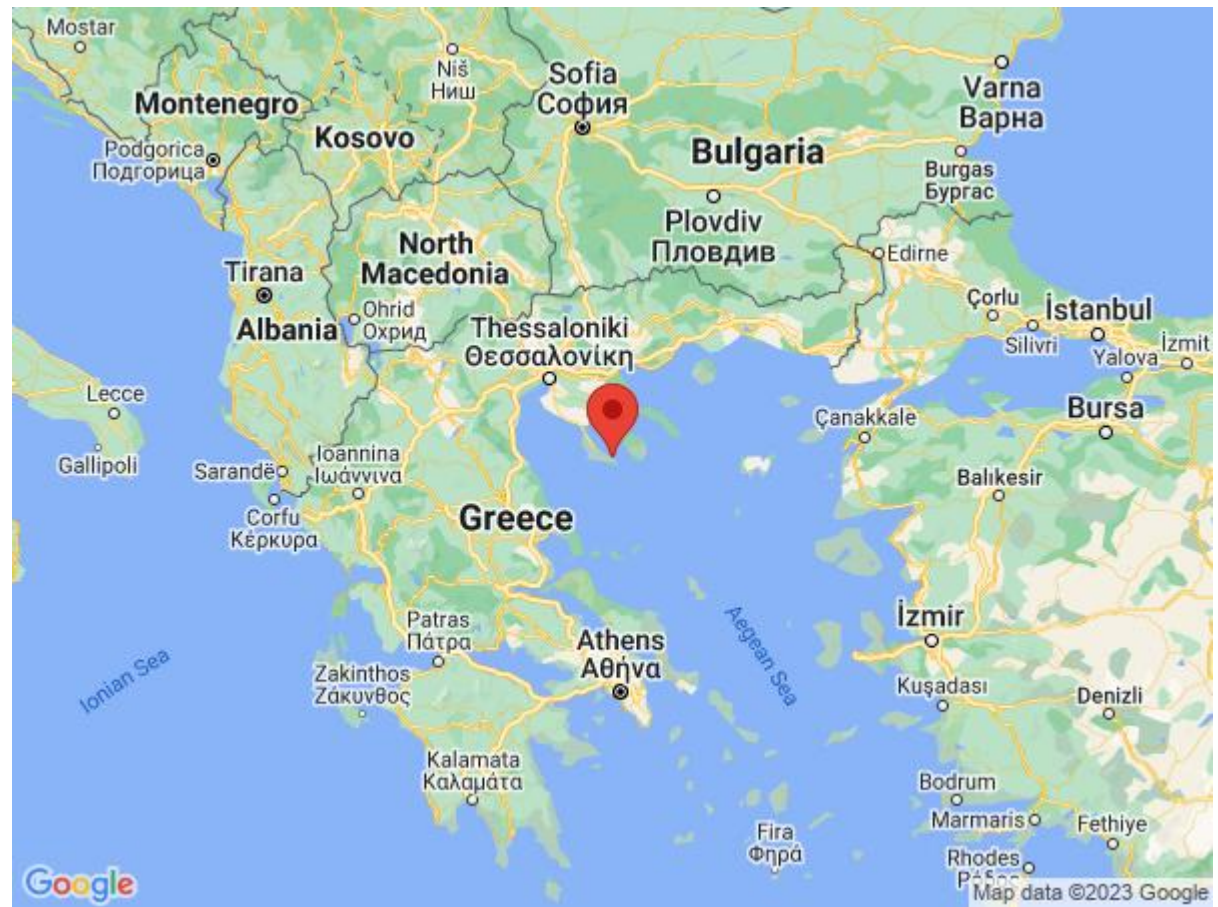

There is plenty to choose from if you're looking to try watersports, the villa's beach complex offers equipment and coaching sessions for a variety of sports, should you wish to make use of them.

From Pefkochori you can rent a boat or take a day trip on a sailing boat around Toroneos Bay taking a closer look at what you see from your lounge on the beach. Whichever trip you chose you are likely to head for either Toroni or Porto Koufo where almost all of the fishing boats land their catch. These trips are always informative and allow a stop either for swimming from the boat or for you to pop ashore and explore your port of call.

Not far up the east coast is Afytos perhaps the most unusual traditional village of the Kassandra peninsula. Its uniqueness is not only in its beauty, but also in the historical and natural significance, so much so that the historic centre is now a traffic-free zone. The village is rich in Orthodox Christian structures and stone-built houses, most of which feature some stone inscriptions. Although a resort area with hotels, restaurants and other facilities, Afytos succeeds in preserving its traditional charm. Sitting on a hill above the coast, but still with its own long sandy beach, it assumes an amazing vantage point over the Toroneos Gulf, with splendid views over to Sithonia.

A completely different beach experience is that of Possidi cape on the west side of the Kassandra peninsula. Here there are no loungers, tavernas or beach bars, just you and what you take with you for the day. It is very exposed with little in the way of natural shade so please take your sunscreen! At the end of Possidi beach stands a charming old whitewashed lighthouse. When it was built in 1864, the lighthouse stood very near to the water but now the sea has backed away. The lighthouse is still in use today and has a delightful small flower garden next to it adding to its charm.

You will love a holiday in Villa Charmolipi, enjoying the exotic-coloured beaches, mesmerizing scenery and beautiful surroundings.
