What we love

- This villa offers a wonderful garden view and you have some stunning outdoor areas to enjoy, including the gazebo lounge and dining area
- A magnificent outdoor pool is complemented by a hot tub, ideal for a late-night soak
- The house is superbly styled and impressively spacious, offering multiple living areas that are ideal for lounging
- All the amenities of the resort are close by, with this villa particularly well located for the beach and Altos de Chavon

What you should know...

- The villa is just a five minute drive from the main lobby of the Casa de Campo hotel
- Make sure that mosquito repellent, sunglasses, sunscreen and light layers of clothing that can cover you make the packing list! White looks great on the golf course anyway!
- When getting around the island we'd recommend car. Rental cars are available or you can opt for a taxi or bus. Taxi's can be incredibly expensive and you'll need to be prepared to haggle. Buses tend to stop short of nine o'clock at night which may make you feel as though you don't have enough time for a night out. With a rental, freedom is yours
