

Villa Emerson

Region: Reunion Resort Sleeps: 16

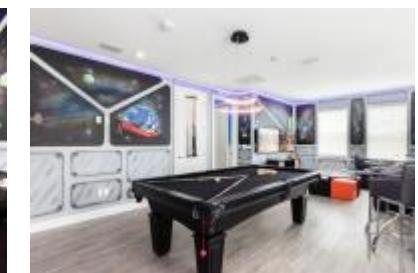

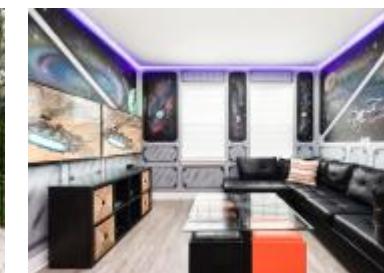

Overview

Simple and relaxed, Villa Emerson offers a comfortable holiday base for exploring the magical world of Orlando's theme parks. Located in the fabulous Reunion Resort, the villa is just a short drive away from all the attractions, so from the moment you arrive, you can simply relax, picking a different park each day, or choosing to relax by your own private pool.

Spread over two floors, this modern villa has been furnished in a warm and homely way, with some traditional features combined with playful elements that suit the Orlando location. On the ground floor, there is a large open-plan living area with sliding glass doors opening onto the pool terrace. This light and airy room has a calm sophistication about it, with a simple colour pallet spread across the soft furnishings and artworks, complemented by a large leather sofa and two accent armchairs where you can sit and relax. The kitchen can be found in the same room, fully-equipped for your use and designed with a social breakfast bar where you can enjoy relaxed meals or sit together, sharing a bottle of chilled wine. The adjacent dining table sits sixteen people perfect for big family meals, you just have to decide what to cook!

There is nothing better after a busy day in and out of theme parks than a good nights sleep. So, each of Villa Emerson's bedrooms has been designed for your complete comfort, with tasteful furnishings, warm colours and comfy beds that make it easy to drift off. The ground floor offers two bedrooms, both with double beds and one of which is completely accessible in its design, offering step-free access to the pool deck. Upstairs, there are six more spacious bedrooms, of which two are designed for kids. Each room has its own private bathroom and space for you to relax, enjoying some privacy after busy days together as a group.

For an added extra, you will find a themed home cinema room hiding on the first floor, boasting a large projection screen and eight leather recliners. Moving up into the loft, there is Galactic themed games room where kids will hide for hours! When you are ready to move outdoors, the terrace does not disappoint. With its popular zero-entry pool and spacious terrace boasting room to dine outdoors, sunbathe through the day and enjoy time as a family, getting competitive on the table tennis!
