Location & Local Information

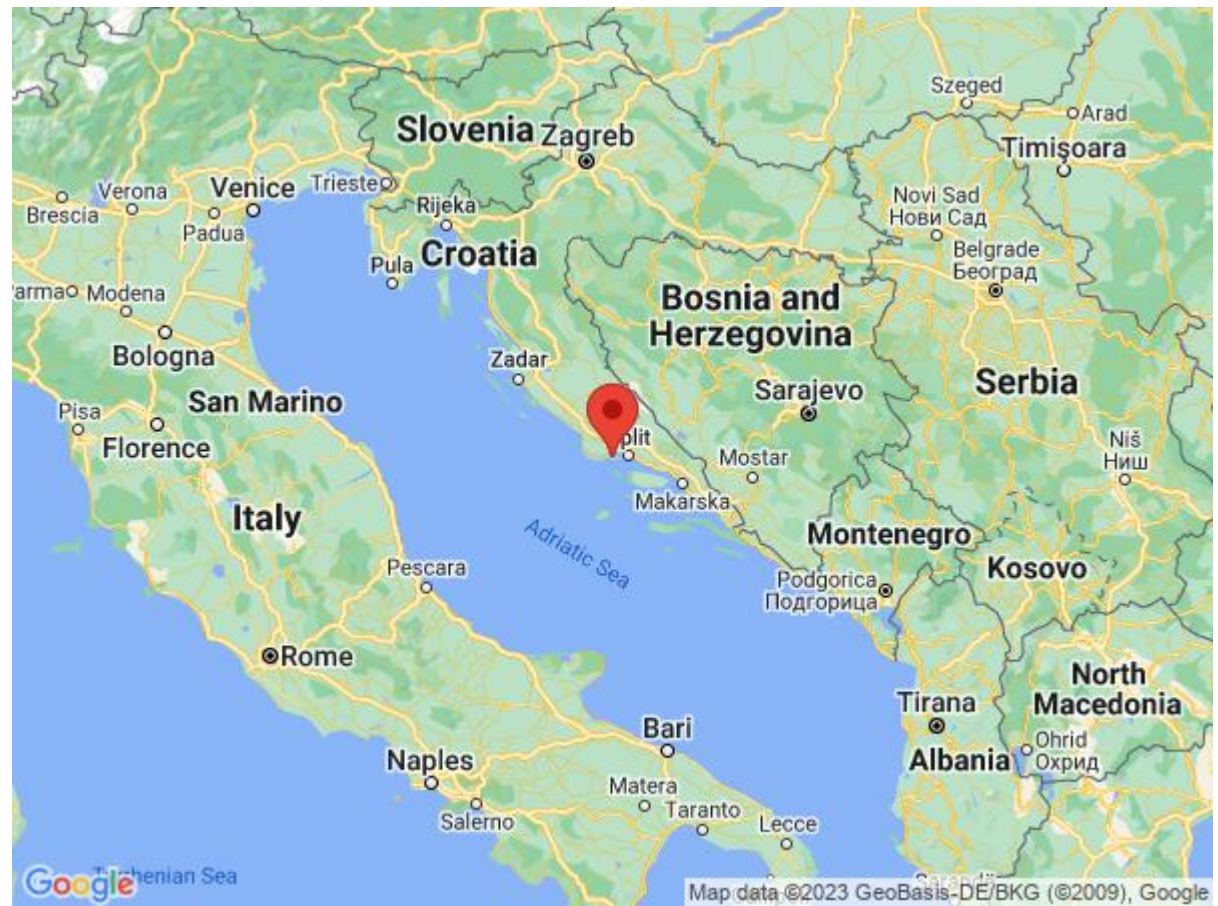

Trogir is a perfect destination in Croatia. It is not far from Split airport, just 3km, and offers so much in the way of beaches, entertainment, scenery and restaurants. Set within Medieval walls on a tiny island, linked by bridges to both the mainland and to the far larger Ciovo Island, the Cipiko Palaces and St. Lawrence Cathedral are examples of the incredible architecture. Building work started on the cathedral in 1213. The main part was completed in 1250 with the bell tower built between the 14th and 16th centuries. You can climb the bell tower to appreciate fantastic views from the top. The Cipiko Places were home to the town's noble family in the 15th century. It is no wonder that it was designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1997. On summer nights everyone leaves the knotted, maze-like marble streets and gravitates to the wide seaside promenade lined with cafes, bars, restaurants and luxury yachts. You will find local honey, wines, olive oils and grappa amongst the colourful local fruit and vegetable produce at the wonderful market.

Nearby are the islands of Brac and Hvar. Brac Island is blessed with stunning scenery, wonderful coves and, of course, the mesmerizing, picture-postcard Zlatni Rat Beach at Bol. Hvar is famed for its lavender fields and its reputation at Croatia's coolest clubbing destination. Both are worth a boat trip to discover if you have time.

Split Old Town is an absolute gem and also worth a visit. You can take the ferry there if you do not want to drive. Again the promenade is a great attraction as well as the gorgeous Diocletian's Palace.
