

Wadebridge Cottage

Region: Cornwall Sleeps: 2

Overview

Situated in the unspoilt Cornish Countryside in the beautiful town of Wadebridge, is the stylish and luxurious Wadebridge Cottage. This stunning white stone property located just a few short miles from the picturesque fishing harbour of Padstow is set over two floors and can accommodate up to two guests, making it the perfect romantic getaway.

A classic looking storybook cottage, Wadebridge Cottage perfectly blends contemporary interior style with playful country charm. The living room is spacious, featuring exposed beams and an inglenook fireplace, and is luxuriously decorated in white and soft neutral tones which gives the whole space an incredibly light and fresh feel. Natural wooden floors and accents of shell and pebble contrast perfectly with the sumptuous powder blue sofas, plush cushions, rugs and throws, creating the perfect space for a cosy night in front of the fire. The living area boasts a Smart TV and complimentary WiFi, as well as breathtaking countryside views.

Three small steps lead into the open-plan kitchen/diner, which is fully equipped with dishwasher, microwave, oven, electric hob, and fridge-freezer. Another beautifully spacious room, the kitchen/diner is decorated in the same natural palette as the living room, with touches of powder and cornflower blue. The large chunky dining table seats 4, and there is plenty of counter-top surface area for food preparation.

Upstairs to the first floor and the contemporary style continues into the bedroom. The white exposed beams of the slanted ceilings, stunning skylights, and natural wood walls are offset by the deep soft grey carpet and high-end linens on the super king sized bed. The floating style bedside furniture, and wall-mounted lighting give this room a thoroughly modern take on the country cottage aesthetic.

The bathroom features clean and modern décor with pale stone coloured tiles and a heated towel rail, and features a bath with overhead dual rainfall shower.

French doors lead out into the private enclosed garden area, making life easy if you decide to dine al fresco. There is a lawn as well as a patio area, and also decking equipped with quality garden furniture and a bbq.

Location & Local Information

The former market town of Wadebridge boasts many independent cafes, bars, and shops and makes a great base for exploring many other areas of Cornwall. You are just a stones throw away from Polzeath – prized by locals as one of the best surfing beaches in the area – and perfect for rock pooling and enjoying picturesque coastal walks. The village of Rock is also just a short journey away, and from here you can catch the regular ferry service across the estuary to Padstow's fishing harbour, which offers a plethora of galleries and eateries including Rick Stein's famous Seafood Restaurant.

If you decide not to venture from Wadebridge itself you won't be short of things to experience. This lively town has lots to offer including a cinema, pubs offering live music, and an eclectic mix of shops and businesses; the perfect location for lazy days of shopping and relaxing with a local beer and a Cornish pasty!

The town is located on the Camel Estuary, making it a prime location for water sports such as canoeing, water-skiing, and sailing. Wadebridge is also home to several events throughout the year including June's beer festival, the Royal Cornwall Show, and the famous Wadebridge Folk Festival.
