Location & Local Information

Greece has inspired some the greatest tales ever written by man and once you get here, it's not hard to understand why! With enchanting terrains that sit on land and against the sea, foods that look as if they have been cast down from heaven and a host of things to do, its no wonder that Greece has been drawing in tourists since the dawn of civilisation!

Your stay in Agios Georgios Nilias means you are situated in the midst of one of the most naturally beautiful landscapes. Steep and slanting, the region sees its locals farm the rich lands to produce a myriad of goods to be sold and exported such as olives, chestnuts, cherries, pears and apples! With an easy-going way of life, it's not hard to truly escape and take it easy in this area!

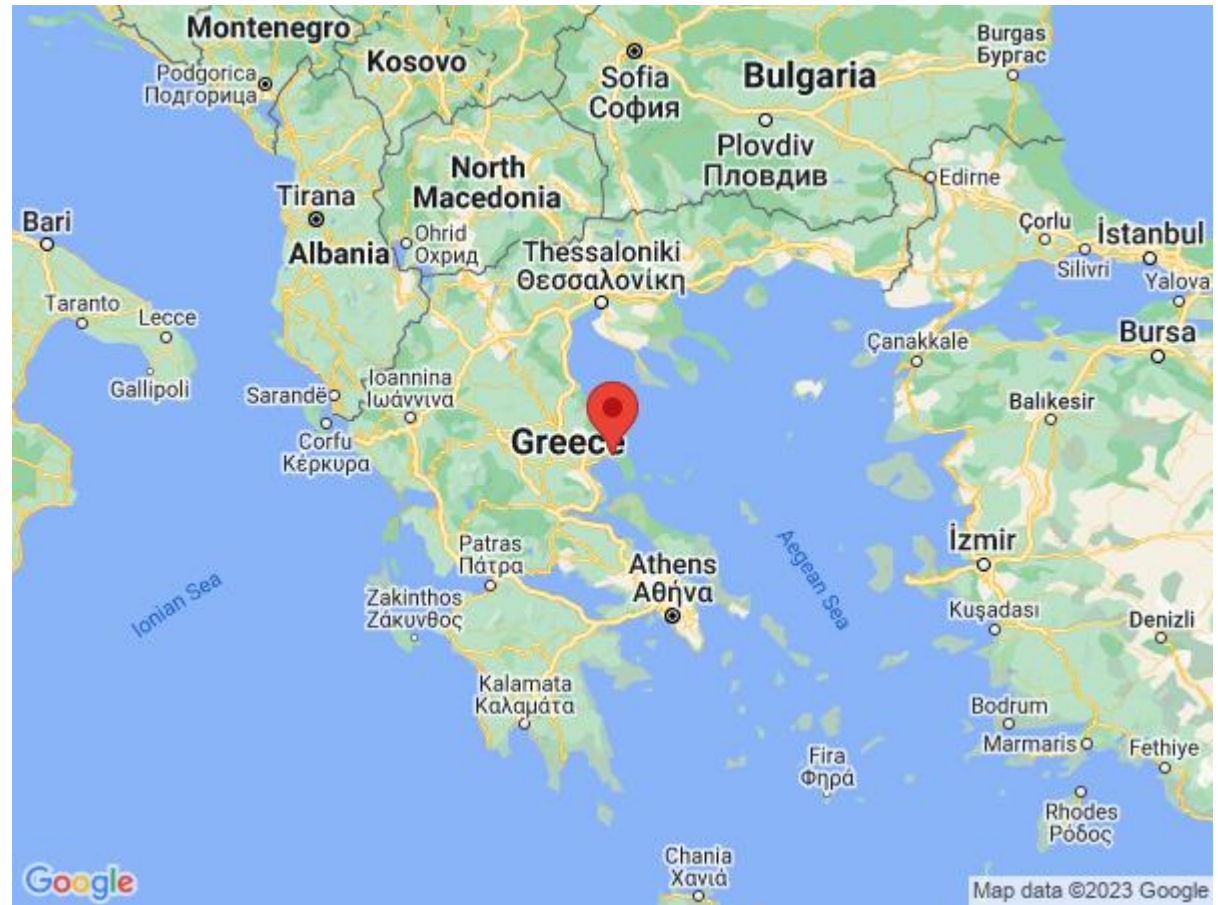

You can get right into nature and admire the historic and charming settings around you, courtesy of mountain bikes and foot hikes! You have over twenty-four villages to choose your exploration in, as well as roads dating tens of thousands of years ago, which to this day still help connect village to village! Visit ancient sites such as Sesklo, where you can see ruins from the Roman eras! For some photo-worthy scenes head upwards and visit mountains and plains that give views across the entire region. While you're here you can visit the famous Mount Olympus!

A myriad of beaches sits below you on the Pagasetic Gulf, providing soft, golden sand shores and waters of a collection of blue hues that sparkle in the sun! Sit back and soak in the rays of the sun or bask in the waters of the remarkable sea as you sip an iced cold frappe! Beaches such as Potistika offer more serene settings whilst popular beaches such as Koropi are far more built-up, so you can expect a variety of places to eat by the seaside and activities on the water to amuse and entertain! Try your hand at a variety of sports such as sailing, windsurfing, surfing, water skiing or sea kayaking!

Volos Airport has Easyjet flights from the UK twice a week. Austrian Airlines also flies from Europe.

What we love

- This hillside villa provides breathtaking views, privacy and spaces to escape and unwind for an entire family!
- The villa provides terraces, garden areas, an outdoor swimming pool and even a hammock for you to have the holiday that you want!
- The villa sits amongst some of the most beautiful scenery in all of Greece and you have numerous ways to explore it on both land and sea!
- Neighbouring Villa Nileias can be rented to accommodate large parties, as there is an inter-connecting gate in the garden.

What you should know...

- Volos sits just thirty-minutes away for a lively city with lots to do and to the other side, you have all the wonders of Greece's coast against the Aegean Sea!
