Location & Local Information

The popular town of Ubud is a great place to experience Balinese culture, walks among nature and some superb local cuisine. The home of many a yoga treat and meditation centre, it's the perfect place to regain some balance and enjoy beautiful surroundings as you do so.

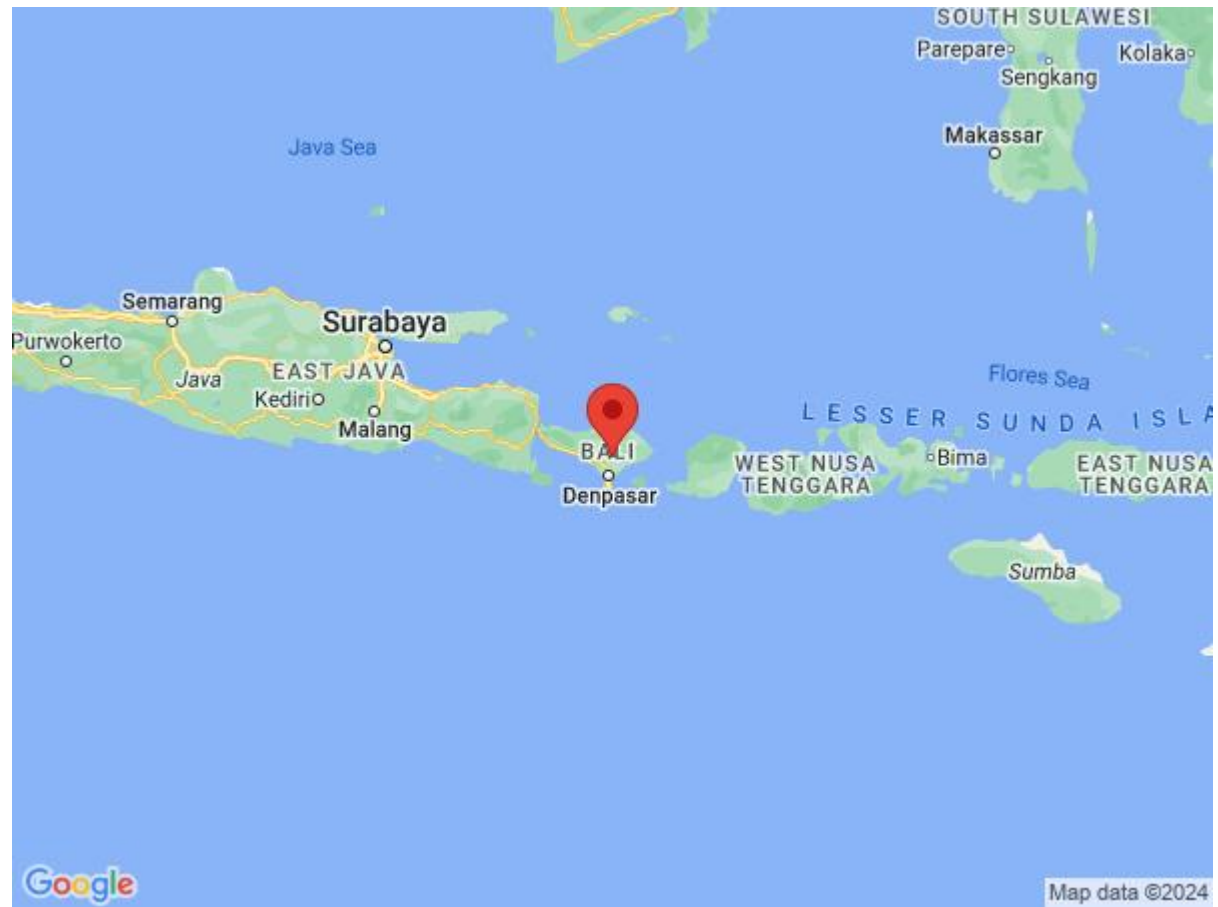

Ubud is also ideal for getting active – treat yourself to a scenic hike along the Campuhan Ridge, or a walk through the rice fields around the area. Activities like quad-biking and rafting are on offer at the nearby Bali Swing adventure park, but some go just for the photo op – it's pretty much compulsory to have your picture taken while dangling from a rope swing over the jungle (floaty dress hire is available).

For something a little different, you can explore the local art scene at a variety of Ubud museums. The Neka, Agung Rai and Blanco Renaissance are just a few which showcase the work of Balinese and international artists. The Paradiso centre shows movies and holds live events like dance classes and open mic nights. Dining won't be an issue either, with all kinds of restaurants and cafés around, many with a vegan, organic or healthy slant.

There are many more picturesque sights in the form of temples, waterfalls and the Tegallalang Rice Terrace, and excursions to the coast are easily doable too. Head south to take your pick of superb beaches like Nusa Dua, Jimbaran, Balangan and Seminyak – itself an irresistible resort with an upscale vibe, good family attractions and designer shopping galore.
