Overview

Villa Angelov is a newly built home which is nestled in the charming coastal town of Novi Vinodolski, offering a taste of maritime flavour, rustic local touches along with top-grade fittings and finishes within seamless contemporary comfort. This breezy and airy light-filled home is crafted in local stone, offset with traditional marina blue shutters and indoor-outdoor living. A feel-good abode, full of natural light, the nautical feel emanates throughout, while the outdoor spaces are perfect for stylish outdoor living.

The garden's centrepiece is the glistening pool, set within a sleek terrace space furnished with day beds and loungers, together with a shaded dining veranda ideal for al fresco meals and barbecues in the balmy evening air. With an outdoor gym, kids play area, table-tennis and bar, the scene is set for lively group time.

The interiors at Villa Angelov have been designed with entertainment and convivial moments in mind, with a stylish bar area and open plan living spaces. The kitchen has a centrepiece island with low-hanging lighting and exposed brickwork in the creamy local stone with natural timber accents. Innovative design touches feature throughout, including the full arched doorway, natural stone-built bath and sink with a crafted effect and connection to the local natural landscape, while exposed timber beams lend a cottage-like feel. The recurrent nautical theme pops up at every turn, in artwork, fabrics and the ultra-fun sea-life themed shower.

The bedrooms are serenely finished in neutral tones, while the large, open-plan living space with flat-screen television and games console sets the scene for group downtime.

Villa Angelov has an upbeat air to it, a breezy sea-side feel with abundant natural daylight, playful touches of experimental design and ultra-pretty use of raw materials with stylish outdoor living spaces.

Location & Local Information

Villa Angelov is nestled in the bustling tourist town of Novi Vinodolski, 12 km south-east from Crikvenica and 45 km south-east from Rijeka on the southern Croatian coast, facing the island of Krk. Novi Vinodolski's centre and beaches are just a short walk from the villa, while the town has both an old town and new town and is considered the second most visited town on the Croatian riviera after Opatija.

The Novi Vinodolski Riviera is located in the central part of the Northern Croatian Littoral; the town is rich with historical sites, including the dilapidated walls of the Lopsica Roman fortress, the ruins of the former monastery, and the Frankopan castle with its tower. Famous for the small-pebbled beaches backed by green woods Nori Vindolksi offers both the best of natural beauty and access to unspoilt nature in its surrounding areas to authentic Croatian life. Water sports and boating trips are abundant in this region, whilst the islands of the Kvarner Bay are easily accessible.

Only 205m from Novi Vindolski, visitors can visit the small island of St. Marino, which is known for its Gothic church. Nearby Crikvenica is one of the most scenic parts of the Adriatic coast, where the sea and the green plains of the Vinodol valley meet. Crikvenica has a host of seasonal events, including the traditional Fishermen's Week (one of the oldest festivals in Crikvenica), whilst the Aquarium is worth a visit, filled with more than 150 species of fish, as is the Crikvenica Town Museum.

Visitors interested in fishing and fish specialities shouldn't miss a visit to Klenovica, one of the most renowned fishing villages on the Adriatic.

The Plitvice Lakes National Park is the largest, oldest and most visited Croatian national park, offering 16 spectacular lakes, connected by stunning waterfalls and cascades. Visitors will enjoy this unique oasis of natural beauty by walking along the paths and wooden bridges or taking a tour by small train and boat.
