

Villa Jozsi

Region: Krk Sleeps: 8

Overview

Eight lucky guests will be very happy with their accommodation and amenities at the gorgeous, modern Villa Jozsi. It was built in 2018 to a very high standard in a lovely plot surrounded by greenery in the quiet village of Gornja Hlapa on the island of Krk.

Dobrinj's name comes from the word 'Good'. It is located on a 200-metre high hill from which you can see the bay of Soline. You can have a lot of fun in Soline, as there is a little river with a lot of therapeutic mud which many visitors cover themselves with!

The villa is built over three floors with living space on the ground floor with a gym and sauna, and bedrooms and bathrooms on the upper floors. The outside space has been well designed to make the most of the space and lush planting all around. The pool is lovely and is surrounded by plush rattan sun loungers. The pool spout will provide a lot of fun to children larking around in the pool. The outside shower is handy too, and the jacuzzi is lovely. To the side of the villa, there is covered alfresco dining with a built-in barbecue and summer kitchen.

The open-plan living, dining and kitchen is extremely spacious and comfortable with modern furniture and opens directly to the pool terrace. At the far end of the ground floor and next to the pool is the well-equipped gym. The sauna is an added bonus and is sure to be very welcome at the end of the day.

On the first floor, there are two king bedrooms, each with a gorgeous, streamlined shower room and access to a balcony. On the upper floor, again there are two kings, each sublime, and with exquisite shower rooms and access to a terrace. Every room in this villa is spacious and so comfortable.

Location & Local Information

Villa Jozsi is in a lovely position, close to the sea and tourist entertainment on the island of Krk. The villa is approximately 3km from Soline, 4km from Klimno and 13km from the busy resort of Malinska.

Soline is such fun. You can see the historical remains of St Peters Church, swim to the islet of Skojic and cover yourself with a healing mud bath! The small island of Skojic is 450m away from the mainland. There is not much on it so you will probably just swim right back, but it is a fun goal to get there!

Klimno Bay includes the villages of Klimno, Soline and Cizici. Klimno is the largest village in the bay and one of the oldest in the area. The small chapel of Saint Clement dates back to 1381 with its Glagolitic inscription. There are still a lot of workshops for making and repairing vessels in Klimno. There are some terrific restaurants too!

Malinska is a renowned tourist centre and is adorned with numerous sandy and pebble beaches. Draga, Porat and Rupa beaches are very popular. The town is also famous for its historical sites, such as the tower of the ruined St Apolinara Church built in 1618, the ruins of the Benedictine church and convent from the 11th and 12th century and in nearby Porat you can visit the church of St Mary Magdalene, Franciscan convent from the year 1500. During the summer, there are many festivals in Malinska, including the Malinska Night, Malinska Cultural Summer and the Kvarner Regatta.

Krk Town is very pretty with narrow, cobbled streets, stone houses, cultural monuments and picturesque pebble beaches as well as wonderful restaurants and bars. The town walls and gates are very attractive.
