Overview

When entering the sublime haven that hosts Villa Atid, guests would be forgiven for thinking they have stepped into the glossy pages of a travel magazine - this tropical idyll surrounded by green foliage and coconut trees is home to an exclusive array of villas, each executed with exquisite attention to detail and classical Thai finesse.

Nestled just a few moments walk from Railay and Phranang Beaches, Villa Atid is set within unadulterated tranquillity, offering a serene bolt-hole, with all the hallmarks of quality in place: luxury services, pristinely finessed interiors, beautiful private pool, authentically tropical surrounded.

Executed with architectural verve and panache, this stylish home lends a nod to traditional Thai architecture, in the timber clad pavilion style, set across two storeys. The graciously elegant interiors are characterised by their use of natural timber, polished hardwood artefacts, sumptuous upholstery and a connection to the natural world that is central to the traditional Thai way of life. Guests can enjoy wandering from their chic retreat to the balcony and have the feeling of being in a treehouse, high up along the swaying palms, while the sleek bedroom offers a restorative get-away.

With ambient lighting, traditional artefacts, pristine fittings and crisp linen, guests' every comfort is cared for with uniquely warm Thai hospitality. There is a butler service to attend to guests' needs, and a world-class spa on-site for award-winning pampering treatments.

Sophisticated, yet serene, Villa Atid blends the best of authentic Thai styling, proximity to nature and unrivalled comfort to create a rather special haven of class, quality and style. With all contemporary comforts in place, from flat-screen television to Wi-Fi, elegant wicker chairs and an earthy palette of natural tones along with terracotta flooring set the tone for understated luxe.

This unique abode is a peerless home-from-home, its quiet beauty and lush surroundings simply speak for themselves.

Close by, Railay is the Mecca for rock climbing, while the long stretches of white sandy beaches on the coast offer endless choice. Taking a longboat out to some of the islands off the coast makes for a wonderful excursion, or taking a trek deep into the jungle and its unspoilt flora and fauna.

Krabi is the ideal choice destination for those looking for a pampering break in southern Thailand, away from the bright lights and activity of Phuket Town or Patong.

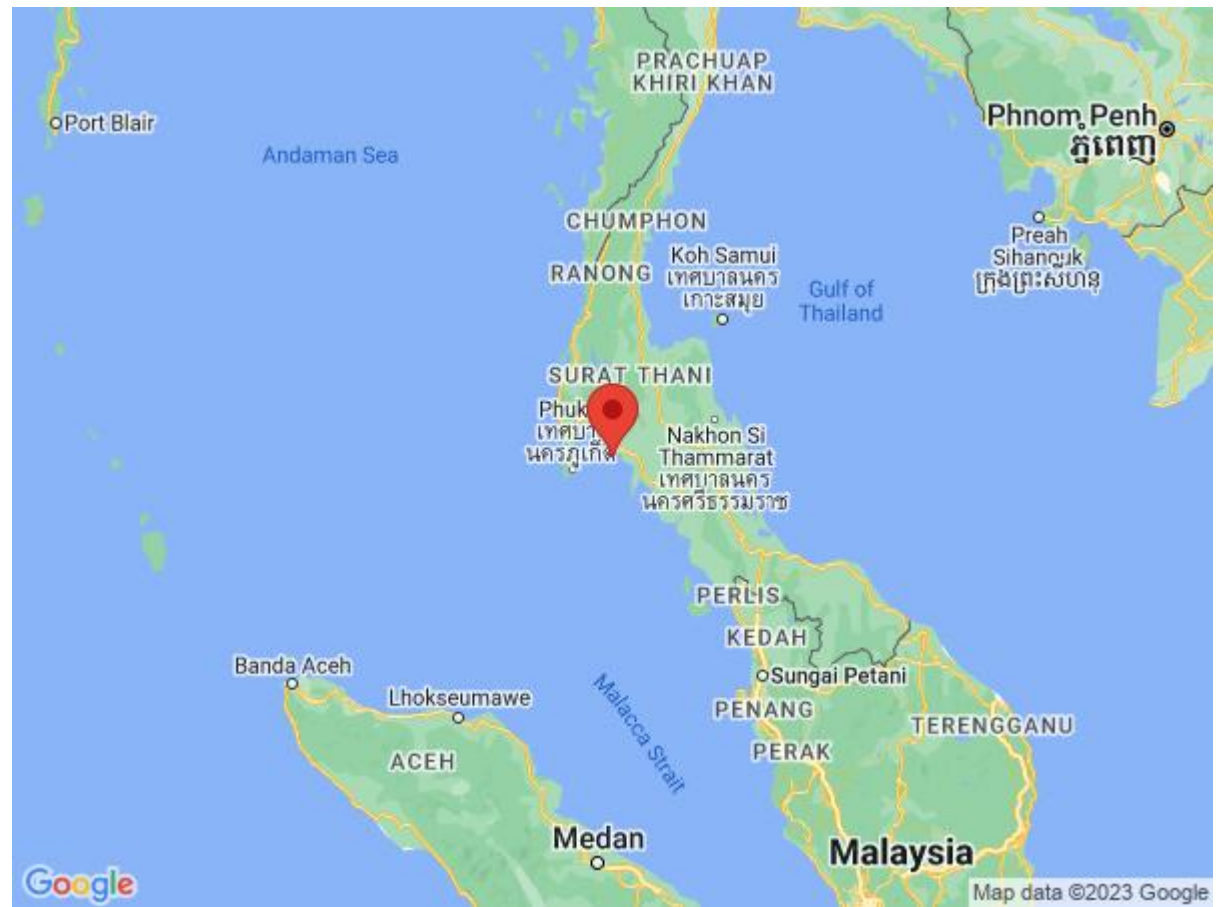

Nestled between Phang Nga and Trang, the region features stunning scenery both inland and at sea. With over 150 islands off its 150 km coastline, a jungle-covered interior, majestic limestone cliffs, mysterious caves, waterfalls and exotic wildlife, nature and water lovers will be in paradise!

Less raucous than Patong, Ao Nang is the main beach town in mainland Krabi is a relaxed, small town, yet offers a colourful nightlife scene with everything from live music, to fine dining and beachside shacks.

Phra Nang Beach is considered the jewel in Southern Thailand's crown; it boasts coral reefs, pristine white sands with turquoise clear waters and mysterious caves to discover. Taking a trip deep into nature, the Thung Teao Forest Park (set about 50km south of Krabi town) is a stunning natural sanctuary that hosts a magnificent crystal lagoon. Featuring a long nature trail through the tropical rainforest, the park reveals the wild side of Krabi province.

Krabi town is a charming, laid-back market town, where visitors can enjoy local and genuine Thai culture. Krabi hot springs offer a chance to unwind in a centuries-old traditional way.

No trip to this region would be complete without a trip to the iconic 100m high limestone rocks, whilst the Phi Phi islands are known for featuring in multiple movies and television shows - their beauty is unparalleled, with clear turquoise waters and sugar-white sand beaches - they truly leave guests with lasting memories.
