

Villa Laurette

Region: Speightstown Sleeps: 6

Overview

Nestled amongst lush palm-trees and shrubbery, the three-bedroom Villa Laurette presents a luxuriously modern, beachfront getaway on the beautiful island of Barbados. Relax in style and comfort, as you escape the mundane and have yourself a fun-filled yet tranquil escape in one of the most picturesque places in the world!

Villa Laurette is an outstandingly unique place to call home whilst in Barbados. Traditional colonial architecture vamped up with use of stone-bricks, houses elegant and airy rooms, brought to life with light and cool colours throughout its finish. Modern design and décor help add to the contemporary ambience in the home and make lounging, relaxing or having fun feel that much more deluxe!

A turquoise theme, similar to the shade of the sea, runs throughout the house. The pillows of the same colour sit delightfully on sofas and cushioned seats, where you can gather together for lovely and intimate evenings, complemented by television and views and breezes from outside through patio doors. The kitchen, includes the same colour scheme, emboldening the pattern against the neutral stone-brick. Barbados offers tropical fruits and produce that has been blessed by the abundance of sunlight and enriching waters of the Atlantic Ocean, so make sure you make the most of your time here by preparing a feast in the kitchen. Fully-equipped you can prepare anything you want to produce an unforgettable meal! Just make sure they remember it for the right reasons!

Guests have the choice of three bedrooms across the villa, offering air-conditioning and en-suite bathrooms for your rest, relief and recovery throughout your stay! Bedrooms have been given ridiculous amounts of space, meaning there is even further seating and tables within each room, so you may find it hard to find a reason to leave the comfort of the quarters! The two bedrooms upstairs offer a King-size bed in one and twin singles in the other bedroom and the bedroom downstairs offers a King-size bed. Guests can keep fit in the exercise room upstairs or kick back with food and cocktails on sun-beds or the table and chairs on the balcony, overlooking the pool and providing awe-inspiring views of the sea!

The patio has been constructed with leisure in mind featuring a darling alfresco dining table and chairs as well as cushioned seating, under the shade of the roof and ceiling fans! As your barbecue feast is prepared in the outdoor grill and kitchenette area, sip cocktails from the solace of sun-loungers or enjoy splashing in the outdoor pool. After dining at the wet-bar, you can get right into the sea, as the villa sits on the beach!

Location & Local Information

Home to beaches you see on postcards, recipes from all corners of the globe, buzzing and quaint towns and villages and a nightlife to rival anywhere, Barbados ranks amongst the top destinations to visit across the world! Whether you want excitement or mellow moments, Barbados will ensure you can find an activity to suit your mood anywhere you find yourself on this enchanting island!

Situated in St Peter Parish, on the border of St James Parish, Villa Laurette rests on the western coast of Barbados, directly on the beach! Guests are free to get right into town and mingle with the laid-back Bajan people or dine and drink delightful meals and beverages as you shop, have fun and kick back!

Take a few steps from the villa to Gibbes Beach, a seaside spot that meets all the expectations you have of Caribbean coasts. Sugar-white grains of sand marry along the shore with crystal-clear, turquoise seas which shimmer in the sun, inviting guests to have a splash and swim! The little slice of paradise is well off the main road meaning you are free to enjoy a secluded spot of serenity with little activity on its shores and several vendors offer lounge chairs, umbrellas and refreshments to keep you comfy and satisfied all day long!

Try your hand at tennis or a spot of golf at nearby courses, where you can challenge your friends to competitions and games. And when you need something to munch, make sure you try the delicious recipes native to this island! A mix of African, Portuguese, Indian, Irish, Creole and British influences present the tastiest seafood, meats and vegetables across the cuisine. After wolfing down saltfish, cou-cou, chicken curries and so much more. Wash it down with delicious recipes including rum-punch and the nations favourite, Maubi drink!

Take a tour of several historic estates, which showcase the history of this island and the involvement of all the cultures that have played a part in the island's history. Head over to George Washington House or St Nicholas Abbey for a tour of historic plantations or head over to gardens, caves and gullies found across the land, for quiescent experiences with the natural beauty that surrounds you!
