The terrace is framed with decadent day-beds and exquisite views, setting the scene for romantic meals at sunset and refreshing post-swim breakfasts as the resort wakes up. The views at every turn are sublime, looking out onto azure waters from the bed or living space creates wonderful vistas, and every contemporary comfort it in place from flat-screen television to wifi.

Location & Local Information

Koh Yao Yai is nestled in the Andaman Sea, a glistening jewel in its crown, accessible by long-tail boat from the Bang Rong Pier on Phuket's east coast. And within just a 25-minute taxi drive.

This low-key island is best discovered by scooter, adopting the local pace of life, and its unadulterated nature, stunning beaches and uncommercial vibe can be enjoyed at visitors leisure. A far cry from the bright lights of Phuket, there is no bustle of nightlife on Koh Yao Yai or tourist traps, simply stunning mangrove forests, unknown beaches, tranquil nature and local style seafood restaurants run by friendly locals.

When meandering through the island by scooter, visitors will take in local wooden style Thai homes, buffalos taking mud baths in rice paddies, winding roads through rubber plantations, and luscious mangroves and coconut groves.

Water sports such as diving, boating, sea kayaking and snorkelling are all available on the island; the conditions are ideal for these. After a day on the beaches, heading back to the luxury confines of the resort for a massage will hit the right note!
