

Villa Vidura

Region: Santhiya Yao Yai Sleeps: 4 - 5

Overview

Villa Vidura is a gem of a home, a romantic idyll, styled to perfection, where traditional Thai heritage meets contemporary comfort and luxury. Perched overlooking the water's edge, the indoors and outdoors interplay seamlessly, in true Thai style, elegant outdoor living is executed with finesse, in the ocean breezes.

Stepping inside, this beautiful two storey home has two bedrooms, one double bedroom and one twin bedroom, both brimming with natural daylight, serene and sedate ambience, thanks to the ornate timber carved finishes and billowing four-poster beds.

Romantic, soft and rich silks in deep crimsons and golds contrast with the crisp white linen and warm, honey-coloured timber, while the stunning ocean panoramas glimmer alluringly. The terrace offers stylish outdoor living, furnished with day beds, loungers and an infinity pool with jacuzzi.

The interiors feature classic Thai touches, embellished timber carving, distinguished writers desks, stylish dressing tables and exotic-toned fabrics, while all contemporary comforts are in place, from flat-screen television to wi-fi and coffee machine.

Bathing under the stars, in the open-air bath, with a cocktail to hand, will set a new standard for holiday decadence! Breezy, seamless holiday living is offered in the chickest of abodes, while the wider resort offers impeccable services, dining, family entertainment and pampering.

Villa Vidura is a hard-to-beat spot, blending glamour with authentic Thai living; luxury with local style - set on one of Thailand's undiscovered islands: Koh Yao Yai.

Location & Local Information

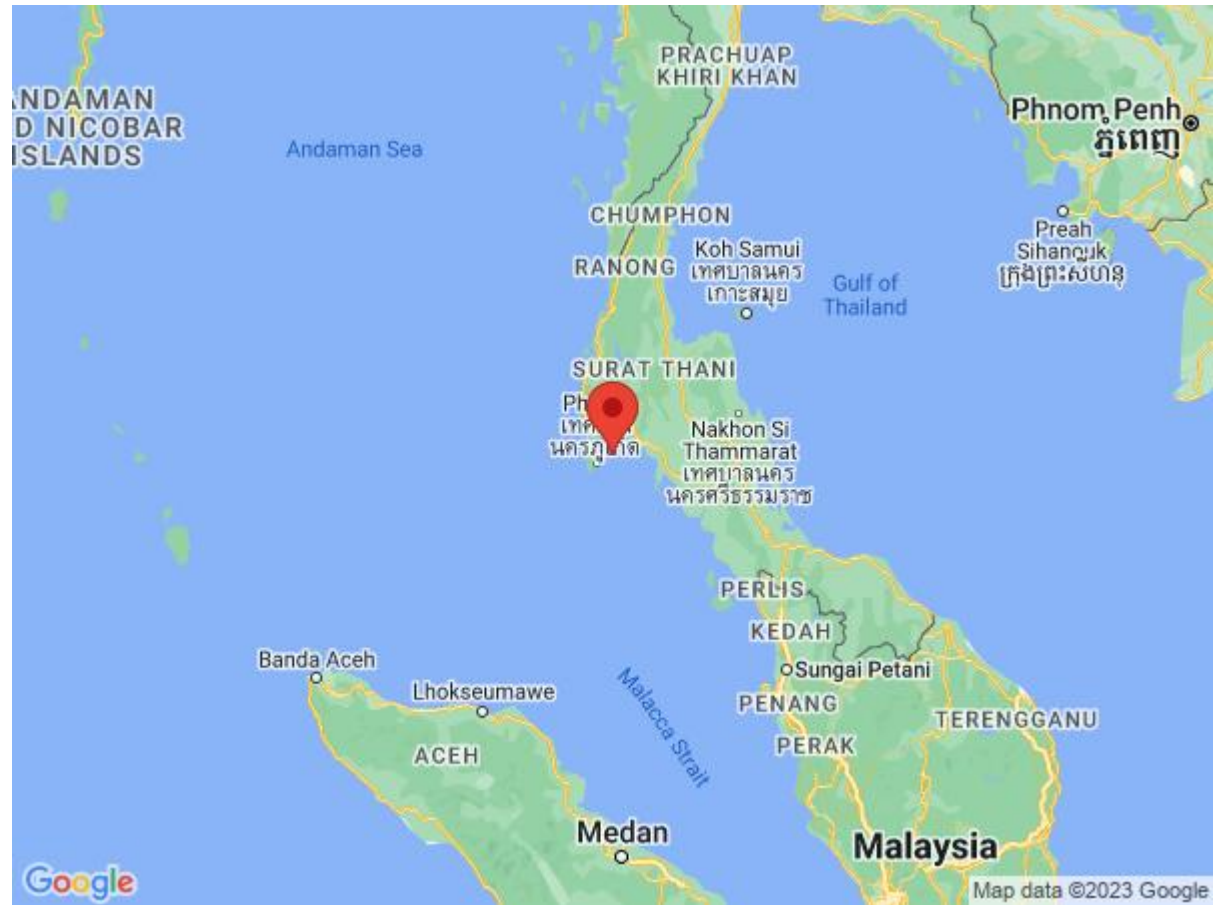

Villa Vidura is set in a discreet position, in a resort that is luxurious, yet authentic and understated, away from the neon lights and glitz of some of the more commercial Thai resorts. The sleepy island of Koh Yao Yai is a far cry from Phuket's bustling resorts or the party strips. It has a smattering of fishing villages, hidden beaches with local kids frolicking, and fishermen hauling their catch of the day in at the end of the day.

Water sports are well catered to, with clear sparkling waters, stunning coral, and along with pristine sandy beaches framed with palms. Snorkelling, diving, kayaking or island trips via long-tail boat are all excellent ways to enjoy the ocean.

Set in a sheltered bay in the Andaman Sea, halfway between Phuket and Krabi, Koh Yao Yai is considered the closest visitors will get to "real" Thailand. Renting a scooter is a great way to get around, and to imbibe the local pace of life - winding through little roads framed by palm groves, stopping off at a sea-food restaurant, watching the fishermen at work - there are no tourist traps on this idyllic island, simply local, authentic life.

What we love

- Beautiful two-bedroom home that blends classic Thai heritage with contemporary luxury
- Set on the water's edge, enjoying stunning panoramas
- Private pool and jacuzzi
- All the hallmarks of luxury in place: slippers and robe, luxury toiletries

What you should know...

- Set on a lesser-known Thai island, which while very beautiful, doesn't offer nightlife or endless tourist attractions
- The infinity pool is unfenced, so little ones will need to be monitored
- Some additional services may incur extra fees, as well as an added layer of pampering
