

Villa Thai

Region: Santhiya Yao Yai Sleeps: 2 - 3

Overview

Villa Thai is an elegant teakwood home, ideal as a romantic retreat, emanating authentic Thai flavour along with every contemporary comfort, perched overlooking the Andaman Sea. Guests would be forgiven for thinking they had stepped into the glossy pages of a travel magazine, while the airy interiors feature ethnic elegance and a dash of tropical charm.

Ornate wood carvings feature throughout, while floor-to-ceiling glass and a natural interplay between indoor and outdoor living offer seamless elegance. With one double bedroom, chic dressing table, exposed stone bathroom and indulgent outdoor bath, this home delights at every turn.

With a four-poster bed finessed with billowing drapes, airy proportions and far-reaching views at every turn, this home also offers every mod-con and contemporary comfort to ensure guests ease. The additional hallmarks of quality are all in place, from fluffy robe and slippers, luxury toiletries, quality linen and coffee-machine - those little details that make a place truly special.

Framed by ocean panoramas, the pool almost blends into the ocean, while the indoors blend into the outdoors, and the sunset views blend into the honey-coloured tones of this sumptuous home. With on-hand staff, quintessential Thai hospitality and a pampering spa, as well as fun activities including excursions and cooking lessons, there is something for everyone at Villa Thai.

Enjoying the best of a private retreat along with wider resort amenities, there are six restaurants, including romantic dining under the stars to authentic Thai fare, beautifully presented in traditional surroundings.

This gem of a home is set in its very own castaway island, offering exquisite architecture and interiors, sumptuous flavours, local culture and unadulterated natural beauty - a memory-making idyll!

Location & Local Information

Villa Thai is nestled on an ocean-side spot on the tranquil, tropical idyll of Koh Yao Yai. Set only 50 minutes from Phuket International Airport by car and speed boat, it takes 30 minutes from the airport to Ao Po Grand Marina Pier and 20-minute boat ride from Ao Po Grand Marina Pier via classic Thai tail boat to reach this ultra-gracious retreat.

The journey there makes it all worth it: based on location alone; it should be swarming with tourists. And yet it's not. Set in the Phang Nga Bay, the island is known for its low-key vibe, its local flavour, wonderful seafood, dense mangrove forests and long stretches of pristine sands.

A far cry from the neon lights and dazzling tourist hotspots of Phuket, Koh Yao Yai is a tropical idyll, with a smattering of sleepy fishing villages and friendly locals, while an array of water sports from snorkelling, to sea kayaking to diving are ideal ways to enjoy the clear waters.

Renting a scooter is an ideal way to get around, stopping by local beauty spots, enjoying exquisite seafood, or discovering hidden beaches in unknown corners of this beautiful island.
