

Villa Suchin

Region: Santhiya Phuket Sleeps: 2 - 3

Overview

Villa Suchin is a sultry home characterised by exotic fabrics, sumptuous interiors, carved teakwood, Oriental flavour and gracious attention to detail. With a modern take on classic Thai heritage, warm and tonal touches blend with the most contemporary of finishes, set on the stunning 10km stretch of sand that is Natai Beach.

The bedroom is crafted with elegant proportions, featuring a grand four-poster bed finessed with graceful drapes, piscine linen and silk fabrics, against the backdrop of natural timber space with distinguished writer's desk and composed day bed for an ultra-lavish and civilised feel.

With all the contemporary comforts in place, along with an underlying Thai flavour and staff-led care, guests will have the sense of having ventured into a tranquil haven of charm, exotic appeal and glamorous living. Wandering out from the low-key dining space, with a cocktail in hand, to the private pool area will be about as good as it gets!

With quintessential Thai hospitality, staff are on hand to attend to guests' every need, while the Ayurvedic spa offers the ultimate mind-body restoration, or if guests fancy it, cooking lessons or fitness and local excursions are on offer.

For a majestic retreat from the grind of modern life - a romantic bolthole for two - or a culturally immersive stay for a small family with a taste of true Thailand, simply look no further than Villa Suchin.

Location & Local Information

Villa Suchin is surrounded by lush, tropical greenery and dazzling sea views at every turn; guests will have the sense of having chanced upon their own private paradise, set on an almost unknown beach.

Natai Beach is just a short distance from the bright lights of Phuket and just a boat trip to the stunning islands of the Phrang Nga Bay, yet offers a secluded stretch of almost untouched sand without the commercial presence of jet skis, speedboats and towering hotels.

Natai Beach stretches to an impressive 10km, just 6km north of Phuket town, yet still none the bustling distractions and tourist-trodden thoroughfare of some of Phuket's other hot spots, instead, visitors will chance upon coconut groves and secluded lagoons along the quiet road which runs parallel to the beach.

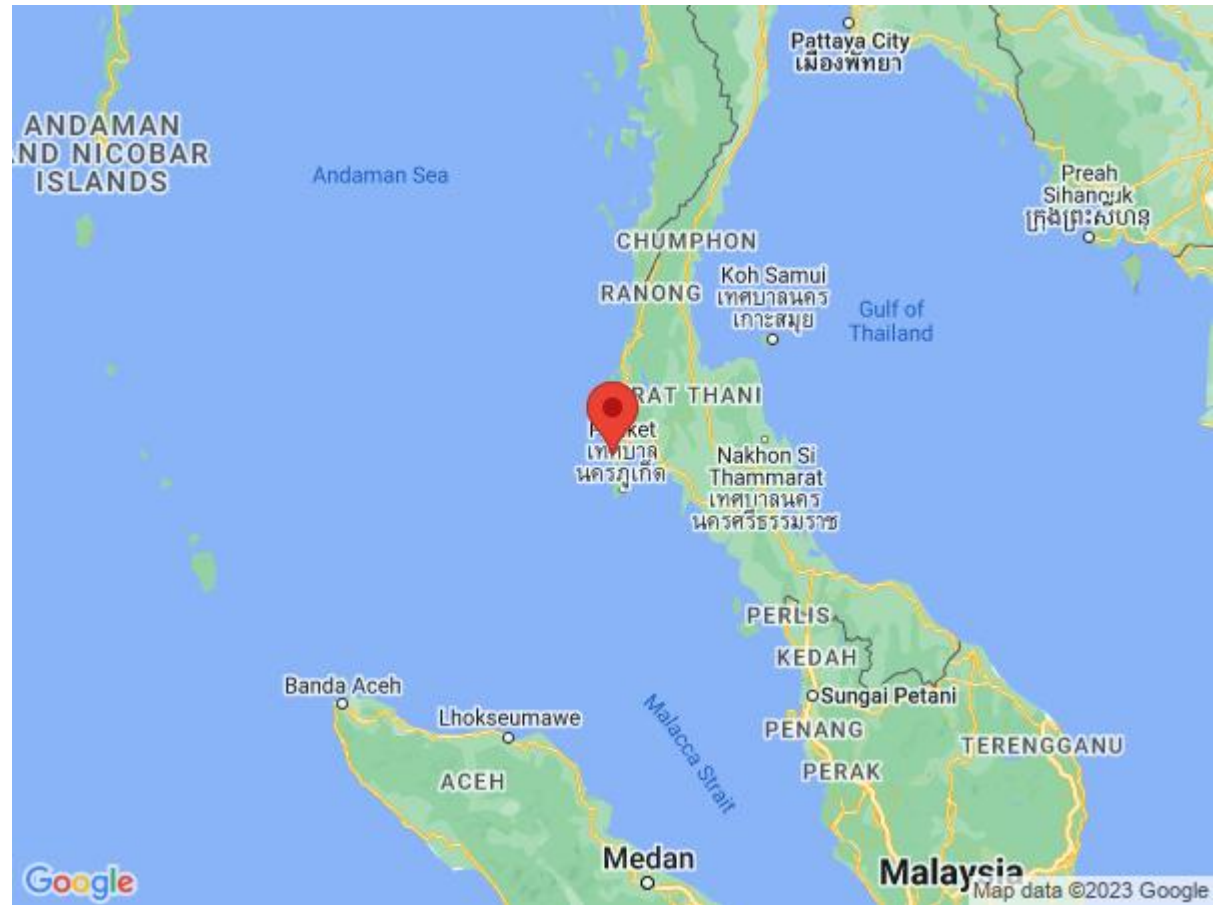

This home is set among the glistening waters and uninhabited islands of the Phang Nga Bay. Located on the Andaman Coast in the south of Thailand, Phuket is the country's largest island and has drawn visitors for decades, while some of the islands are virtually untouched by man and haven't seen modern life.

This region has so much for visitors, from colourful nightlife to vibrant markets with street food and local crafts to adrenaline-pumping watersports, or the tranquillity of the national parks or a taste of Thailand's spiritual temple life.

Natai Beach overlooks the Phrang Nga Bay, which forms part of the Ao Phang Nga National Park. Set on jade waters of the Andaman Sea, the islands are a must-see when in the region. With around 40 islands scattered across the bay, including the famous "James Bond" island (or Ko Khao Phing Kan.) Ao Phang Nga national park covers nearly 250 square miles of islands with limestone cliff faces, green lagoons and impeccable kayaking conditions.

When in Southern Phuket, the Big Buddha is visible from a 5km radius, and its majestic 45m proportions stand proudly between Chalong and Kata. Taking a trip up will reward visitors with 360-degree panoramas of the surrounding area, and is particularly special at sunset with unforgettable views.

While Natai Beach is superbly quiet and untouched by modern development, just a short trip will take guests to downtown Phuket Town. Worth a visit for those seeking a little downtown life, it offers an exciting mix of old and new - heritage buildings and simple, local life. Phuket Night Market is well worth a visit, offering a vibrant blend of food courts, local artisan crafts, animals and souvenirs.

What we love

- Luxurious home brimming with authentic Thai flavour and Oriental charm, teakwood carvings and a palatial feel
- Luxury eco-resort with restaurants, open-air dining, pampering treatments and fitness as well as cooking classes and excursions
- Proximity to the stunningly secluded Natai Beach, the bustle of Phuket Town and the stunning islands of the Phrang Nga Bay

What you should know...

- Optimal for a couple as a romantic bolthole, yet can accommodate a small family
- Better suited for children over the age of 6, due to the presence of water and sunken outdoor bathtub
- Set in a resort with other surrounding dwellings, with shared areas and communal facilities, albeit of the highest standard!
