

Deluxe Alegre

Region: Es Cubells Sleeps: 12

Overview

Located in the Vista Alegre area on the southern coast of Ibiza, the incredible Deluxe Alegre offers accommodation which is as spectacular as its setting. Overlooking the beach, the villa enjoys views of the rugged coastline and has been designed by renowned architects, incorporating a superb terrace and ocean-view pool.

Easily accessible from the airport and Ibiza town, both within 17km, Deluxe Alegre is situated in a secure, private community. With a dock right outside, this exclusive property has two, crewed boats available for hire, allowing you to explore the island with ease. A fleet of five vehicles including two Jeeps, with or without a driver, are also available to you at no additional charge.

The magnificent infinity pool forms just part of the villa's outdoor offering. There are open and covered dining terraces, an outdoor lounge, a poolside seating area and sun loungers, as well as a spacious lawn area. All this makes it easy to enjoy the warm Mediterranean weather which continues year-round on Ibiza.

The ocean views continue inside, where natural light living areas are equipped with air-conditioning, home automation and Smart TV with a media centre giving access to international channels and content. Each of the six bedrooms has its own en suite bathroom, and allow up to 12 guests to enjoy Deluxe Alegre.

Numerous services are available, including a concierge service which can organise babysitting, sports and excursions, as well as the services of a chef or personal trainer. If you want to organise an event at the villa or elsewhere, they can help with that too. Housekeeping and 24-hour security are also taken care of.

Deluxe Alegre is a 20 to 30-minute boat ride from laid-back Formentera and serves as a convenient base for visiting Ibiza's own attractions. The fortified Old Town, or Dalt Vila, is one example, around 30 minutes' drive from Vista Alegre.

Location & Local Information

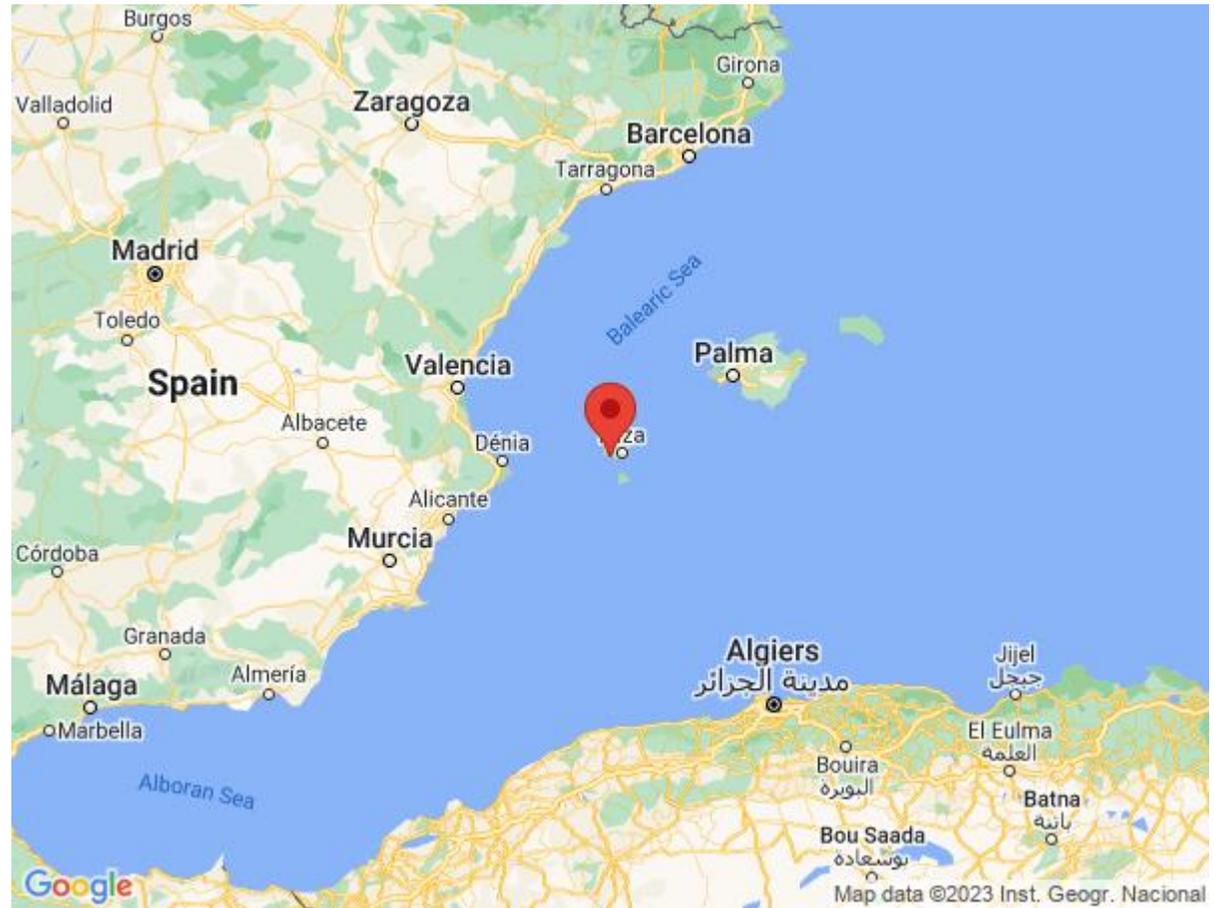

Ibiza is gradually shedding its image as Europe's hedonistic party zone and putting the focus on its credentials as a holiday destination for all the family. There is genuinely much more to the place than pumping clubs and all that go with them – although there is still a bit of that if you want it. If all-nighters are a thing of the past, however, go for the idyllic Blue Flag beaches, stunning countryside and ready-made excursions which show off the island at its best.

Ibiza town's 'Old City', the fortified Dalt Vila, is one sight worth seeing, and UNESCO recognised. With the fortification once necessary to fend off pirate attacks and foreign invasions, Dalt Vila offers an intriguing look into Ibiza's distant past. At the top of the city, Ibiza Cathedral dates back to even earlier times, with gothic paintings inside from the 14th and 15th centuries. The views from this lofty location are also particularly impressive.

Just outside San Antonio, you can visit Aquarium Cap Blanc – no ordinary aquarium as it is located inside a sea cave. Rather than tanks, you can look down on the marine life in well-lit pools. Also on an animal theme, Horse Valley is a rescue centre for horses and ponies based near Ibiza Town and organises a range of excursions which riders will enjoy. Elsewhere, you can get around via boat, bike, tourist train or hire a classic American Mustang and feel the wind in your hair.

Perhaps the only scene to rival Ibiza's association with electronic dance music is spa and wellness – the island is full of places in serene country surroundings which will take you to a level of relaxation it would be hard to achieve in a superclub. For that, your best bet is to stay close to San Antonio where the legendary Café del Mar is based – you can also find clubs within reach of the island's longest beach, Playa d'en Bossa.

If it all gets too much, take the ferry to neighbouring Formentera where unspoilt countryside and a relaxed ambience is the name of the game. The peaceful family resort of Santa Eulalia is another alternative, located not too far the only golf course on the island as if to demonstrate Ibiza really does have something for every taste.
