Just a five minute drive from Begur, a lively, colourful town that is as quaint as it is vibrant, with a crumbling medieval castle, you're ideally placed to soak up the rich culture and history of the region! Tucked away in this fabulous region of Catalonia, you'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to beaches, golfing, water-sports and soaking up a little of the Spanish culture and history – and did we mention the food?!

Despite its idyllic location on the unspoilt coast, Villa Jordi is nonetheless fabulously well-connected to the rest of the country! The fabulous city of Girona, just a 55-minute drive away, is home to an astonishing Cathedral which took almost seven centuries to build, with elements of Romanesque and Gothic architecture throughout! Meanwhile Barcelona is under two hours away, and with so many museums, galleries, sublime historical and architecturally beautiful buildings, and of course the breath-taking Park Güell, makes for a perfect day out!

The Costa Brava, and indeed Catalonia as a whole, is famous for its wonderful beaches, fabulous gastronomy and calm, steady pace of life. This particular patch of coast is punctuated by hundreds of distinct coves with tiny beaches on many, noteworthy for the complete lack of development in most cases! Famous beaches of the area include: Platja Gran de Pals, Platja del Racó, Sa Riera, Sa Tuna, Aiguafreda, Aiguablava and many more.

For the adventurous types, this villa is perfectly located, surrounding by many miles of coastal paths perfect for strolling on a beautiful day. Golfers will be delighted by the facilities in the area, which stretch beyond this exceptional Platja de Pals course, as of course will those who enjoy life on the water, with plenty of sailing, fishing and endless water-sports available nearby. This coastline is renowned as a fantastic diving spot due to the crystal-clear waters and fascinating geological features.
