Location & Local Information

The beach of Carvajal is approximately a 5-minute walk from the villa. There is a bus stop just 2 minutes walk away with buses opening up access to the Costa del Sol coastline. Trains from the station 15 minutes away will take you to the airport so you do not actually require a car at this villa, though you may prefer to have one.

Benalmadena is known for its beaches, especially Playa de la Carihuela, and the Tivoli World Theme Park as well as the other entertainment on offer. There are many attractions at the theme park including roller coasters, the 'Twister', Jurassic adventure mysterious ship, the free-fall tower, the giant Ferris wheel, carousels and other child-friendly rides. There is a theatre with live performances, and there are many themed restaurants.

The Sea Life Centre at the marina is very popular. Selwo Marina is a small marine park with 4 areas, Antillas, Las Hondonadas, Amazonia and Isla de Hielo. You will meet lions, giraffes, hippos, zebras, leopards, meerkats, lynx, elephants and pandas. There are also adventure activities including the zip wire, hanging bridges, archery and the Serengeti Safari, a 4x4 truck ride around the Great Lakes Reserve. There are dolphin shows in the big pool and an icy penguinarium.

Fuengirola is a vibrant metropolis with tapas bars, many cafes and restaurants, chic boutiques, wonderful beaches and amusement parks. The main square of Fuengirola, the Plaza de la Constitucion, has been redesigned but still retains its unique enchantment. There are many quaint bars, fiestas and little street markets. The Parroquia de Nuestra Senora del Rosaria is the beautiful church in the centre of the Plaza.

The Fuengirola Tuesday market is buzzy and vibrant with everything from leather goods, clothes, crafts to local produce. You should certainly haggle! The Miramar Shopping Centre is one of the Costa del Sol's largest retail areas. The promenade is great for a stroll where you will pass the beach, Sauld park, bungee trampolines, a merry go round and much more.
