

Hacienda Sian Kaan

Region: Tulum Sleeps: 10 - 18

Overview

Those looking for unparalleled luxury, stunning architecture and state-of-the-art amenities, paired with private beaches, exotic palms, and ocean views, need look no further than Hacienda Sian Kaan. This enchanting estate perched on the edge of the Caribbean sea in Tulum, Mexico, is set in the heart of the 1 million acre Sian Ka'an Nature Reserve and is surrounded by 1km of private white sandy beach, lush tropical jungle, and shady coco palms.

Hacienda Sian Kaan accommodates up to eighteen guests across nine beautifully stylish bedrooms, and boasts stunning architecture and Spanish colonial design, as well as a rooftop terrace and private swimming pool, bedroom balconies, and incredible sunrise and sunset views. Guests staying at the villa will benefit from spacious outdoor seating areas - some in the shade, and some that provide fabulous sunbathing opportunities, and there is an outdoor grill as well as a fire pit - perfect for beach barbecues.

Venturing inside guests will be greeted by the exotic and palatial decor, which includes huge floor to ceiling glass doors to show off the panoramic views, as well as the rich dark wood of hand crafted furniture, stylish chandeliers, incredible arches, and splashes of crimson and gold, teal, purple and magenta in the authentic artworks and furnishings. There is a media room as well as a comfy library space, perfect for winding down after a busy day, gym equipment, and a well-equipped kitchen which features modern amenities such as a coffee maker and espresso machine, food processor and blender.

The bedrooms at Hacienda Sian Kaan are no less luxurious or impressive, with four-poster beds, romantic lace drapes and crisp white linens, all perfectly complemented by colourful hand woven rugs and artworks. The ensuite bathrooms are fresh and vibrant in design with contemporary white suites and bright, hand crafted tiles offering a pop of colour.

Location & Local Information

Hacienda Sian Kaan is an estate located in Tulum on the Riviera Maya, a stretch of Caribbean coastline on Mexico's northeastern Yucatan Peninsula. Known for its long beaches, all-inclusive resorts, and spectacular Mayan ruins perched high above the beach. This world-renowned paradise is situated just south of Cancun, and is home to mangroves, lagoons, ecological reserves, and the world's second largest coral reef. Must-visit destinations along the Riviera include Playa del Carmen, once a sleepy fishing village but now a beautiful cosmopolitan town, the largest in the region. If you are interested in shopping, nightlife, and fine dining, then this is the place for you; whether you want a quiet coffee in a quaint cafe, rustic Mexican food, or a dance-til-you-drop nightclub, there's something for everyone.

Despite its whirlwind development the area hasn't lost its charm, and visitors are still attracted to its beautiful beaches, perfect weather, and welcoming ambience. Perhaps the most well-known attraction in the peninsula, and maybe even the whole country, is Chichen Itza; a huge complex of pyramid-shaped Mayan ruins, built by the Mayan people 1200 years ago. These famous ruins are a UNESCO World Heritage sight, and really does need to be seen to be believed. The area is large, and is an ensemble of many greatly preserved ruins, not just the one pyramid that ends up in the guidebooks and on Instagram, so you'll need a good couple of hours set aside to discover everything without rushing. Once you have explored this incredible historic sight, why not get a traditional Mayan spa treatment at Hacienda Chichen's Yaxkin Spa? Hidden away in the jungle garden you can choose to have a massage, face mask, algae body wrap, or other treatments, all based on natural Mayan cleaning and healing rituals. The perfect way to relax and indulge.
