Cape Kudu Hotel is located on the small island of Koh Yao Noi. The closest airport for those travelling by air is Phuket International Airport, just a short boat ride and drive away! You can choose between a private transfer or using the public services available as you hop in a cab at the airport, heading for the Cape Kudu Hospitality Lounge located on Bang Rong Pier, twenty-minutes from the airport. For those who prefer to travel in style why not take a limousine, starting your holiday how you mean to go on! The lounge offers you air-conditioned comfort and complimentary drinks, snacks, newspapers and magazines while you wait for your ferry to the island.

At the other end of the ferry it is just a fifteen-minute drive in a local car to Cape Kudu, so you will be at your tranquil retreat in no time. If you are travelling from the other direction you also have the option to take a speedboat from Thalane Pier, reaching Tha Khao Pier in twenty-minutes, or forty in a more traditional long-tailed boat. Private transfers from Phuket are perfect for those who want to completely relax; a limousine will pick you up from the airport or your hotel, transporting you to Ao Por Marina, where a private speedboat will take you direct to Koh Yao Noi, ready to start your holiday.

Once at Cape Kudu, the toughest decision is what to do first. The private beach stretches right down to the turquoise sea, perfect for long days on a sun lounger, reading books and soaking in some rays. The hotel's beautiful pool is positioned perfectly to enjoy the views. The newly opened and exclusive Cape Spa is also a great way to relax, with every treatment you could desire, including traditional Thai massage, Indian head massage and reflexology, body scrubs, polishes and wraps.
