You will find some of the best street food in Phuket Old Town, including Burmese curries, crunchy samosas, freshly-baked roti, smokey satay, Hokkien noodles and dim sum.

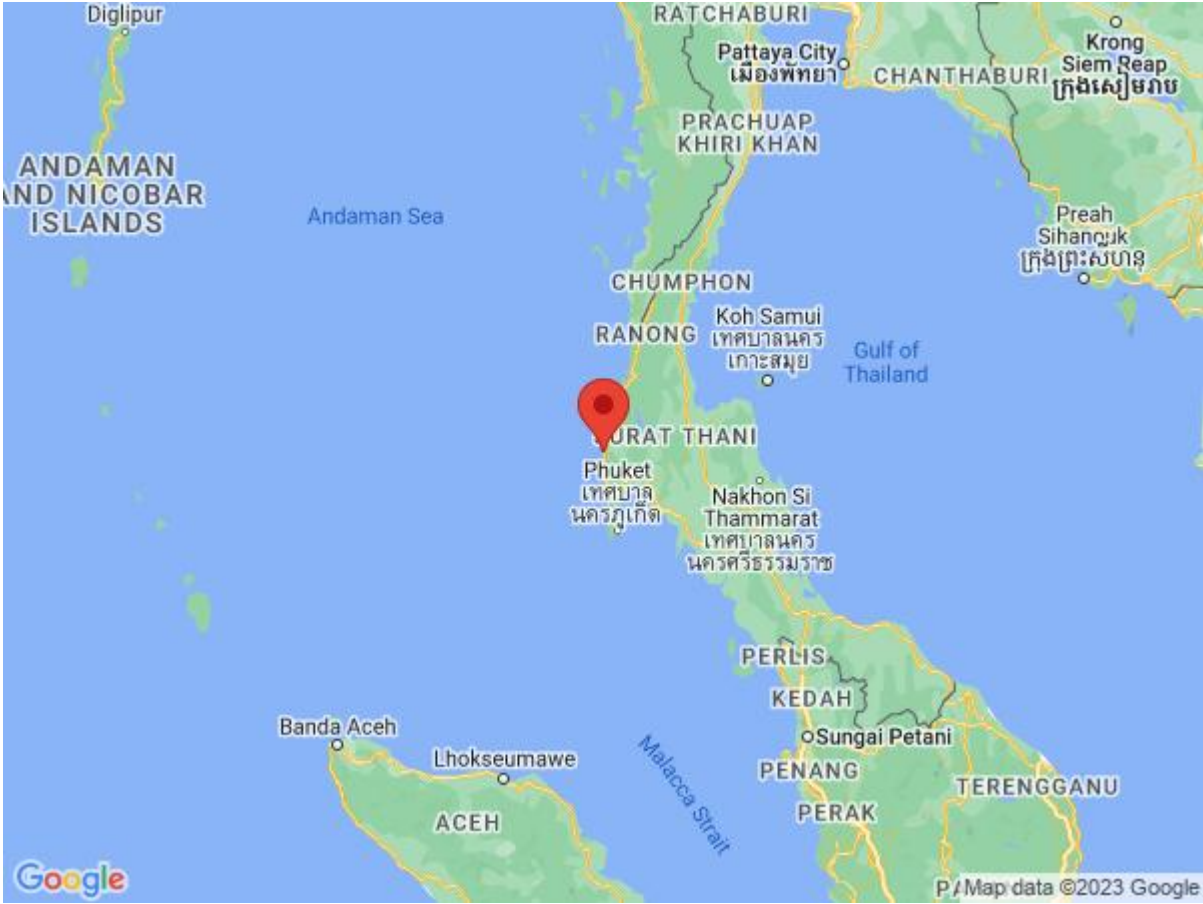

Sarojin Khoa Lak Luxury Boutique Beach Resort borders five spectacular primary rain forested national parks and is within easy reach of the world-famous dive sanctuaries of the Similan and Surin Islands National Marine Parks. The parks are known for their natural underwater beauty, marine life and stunning corals. The resort's Lady Sarojin yacht operates scheduled snorkelling trips around the islands as well as being available for private charter.

Phang Nga Bay is famous for its many dramatic limestone islands, cliffs and rock formations. The distinctive rock formations jut vertically out of the glistening, emerald green water and at low tide fascinating cave tunnels are exposed. Kayaks can venture in and discover the hidden lagoons. Cruises around the stunning Phang Nga Bay are available on the resort's yacht between May and October and by traditional Thai longtail boat all year round.

Thrill-seeking guests will enjoy a challenging adventure into the wilds using the resort's mountain bikes and with national park guides. Not for the faint-hearted, guests can experience extreme rock climbing and extreme mountain biking. You can also swim and learn survival techniques through the wilds of southern Thailand's jungles.

The Phuket Elephant Sanctuary, the island's truly an ethical camp for injured, and aged elephants were opened in 2016 by the British conservationist Louise Rogerson. The Treetops Elephant Reserve, near Big Buddha Hill, was subsequently opened by her to educate visitors on the lives of elephants. Both are fantastic excursions.
