Location & Local Information

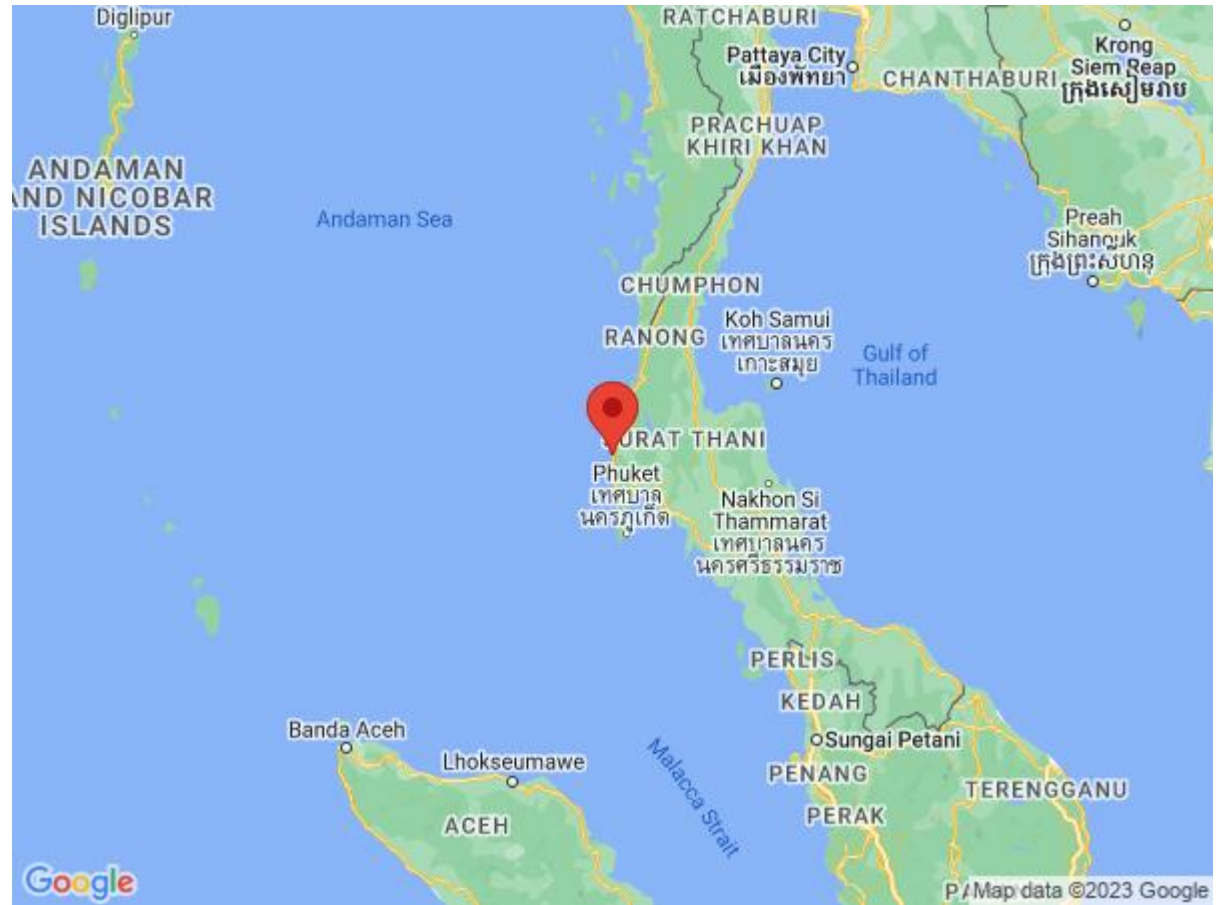

Phuket is Thailand's largest island and a superb destination for a holiday. This stunning, rainforested, mountainous island in the emerald green Andaman Sea has much to offer guests from glorious beaches, historic temples and Buddhas to extreme sports adventures, fine dining and fantastic shopping opportunities.

There are 36 breathtaking beaches on the island. Some of the really special ones include Karon Beach, Kata Noi Beach, Kamala Beach, Kata Beach, Surin Beach, Ko He and, of course, the 11km stretch of Khoa Lak. There are plenty of watersports available, including parasailing, snorkelling, diving and fishing.

There are many extravagant temples to visit where you can admire the intricate buildings and enjoy the colourful stalls selling trinkets, food and souvenirs. Phuket's 45 metres tall Big Buddha is situated at the Wat Kitthi Sankaram temple atop Nakkerd Hill near Chalong. The most important of the 29 Buddhist temples of Phuket is Wat Chalong. You may also want to visit Wat Phra Thong, Khao Rang and Wat Khao Rang Samakkhitham. You are guaranteed to come away with some amazing photographs.

You can enjoy some fabulous shopping expeditions on the island. In particular, you should definitely visit a night market either in Phuket Town or another location. OTOP Patong and Chillva Market are busy and colourful.

There are some incredible viewpoints offering spectacular island and ocean views including Windmill Viewpoint, Monkey Hill Viewpoint, Karon Viewpoint and Rang Hill Viewpoint. Spectacular waterfalls within the verdant jungles include the Bang Pae Waterfall, Kathu Waterfall and the Tonsai Waterfalls.
