

Villa Gioiello

Region: Le Marche Sleeps: 8

Overview

Amidst rolling countryside of olive groves and forest is the quiet corner of Le Marche that Villa Gioiello calls home. It has done so since the early 1700s, with the villa having been built where a convent previously sat for several hundreds of years. This rich history has been reflected in the careful renovation of the villa; which has turned it into a comfortable, character-filled holiday home.

Two-floor Villa Gioiello is surrounded by mature gardens awash with greenery that overlooks the impossibly scenic rural landscapes. Vineyards dot the area and give you the chance to enjoy tastings and tours.

The original brick-vaulted ceilings found across the ground floor create spaces that feel open and airy, with sleek contemporary furnishings adding depth. You'll look forward to snuggling up on the sofa in front of the stunning modern fireplace or unwinding in the reading corner after long days out.

Each of the four bedrooms at Villa Gioiello blend elegant, antique style with modern features that ensure your total comfort. The level of opulence and high standard of finish continues into the bathrooms, with two of the bedrooms boasting luxurious en-suites with walk-in showers.

As if the dining area inside the villa wasn't impressive enough, there's a charming outdoor kitchen where you can enjoy meals by chandelier light as evening falls. The gardens also offer another dining area under a romantic pergola. Every corner of the outside space feels like a secret oasis of calm, with tall hedges and trees enclosing the swimming pool area. And from the more elevated spots of the garden, you can take in magnificent views over the surrounding countryside.

As well as wine tastings and tours, there's plenty to do in this glorious part of Le Marche. Many traditional towns and cities are within easy reach, with Potenza Picena, Macerata and Fermo full of historic building to discover.

And the coast and its pretty beaches are less than 10 minutes away by car. One of the most family-friendly beaches is at Porto Potenza Picena, with the sandy stretches of Civitanova Marche also very popular.

Location & Local Information

Villa Gioiello couldn't be in a much more tranquil setting within the Le Marche countryside. It sits within unspoilt land covered with trees and lush greenery and is tucked away in its own enchanting gardens. And yet the nearest town of Potenza Picena is just a five-minute drive away, with several restaurants, shops, supermarkets, bars and a post office.

Also just a short drive away is the coast, with one of the nicest beaches to be found at Porto Potenza Picena. It's very family-friendly, with soft sand to enjoy and calm waters for swimming. You can hire sun loungers and umbrellas for simply lying back and relaxing. There's another great beach with plenty of facilities at Civitanova Marche and it's around a 15-minute drive away.

Some beautiful and historic towns are in close proximity to Villa Gioiello. There's Castelfidardo with its distinctive brick buildings and long-standing connection with artisan accordion production, and popular Macerata. Macerata is probably most famous for the annual Opera Festival it holds every summer in an open-air amphitheatre. Sightseeing highlights in the town include the 18th-century Palazzo Buonaccorsi and the Basilica della Misericordia.

The hilltop town of Fermo is also full of historic buildings to admire, such as Fermo Cathedral and Piazza del Popolo. Visit the well-preserved Roman cisterns with informative museum, then take a break relax with a drink on a cafe terrace and some people-watching.
