

Casa Demuth

Region: Cala Vadella Sleeps: 7

Overview

Surrounded by colourful flower-filled gardens, the lovely Casa Demuth sleeps up to 7 guests and offers fabulous views to the pretty, turquoise cove of Cala Vadella on the west coast of Ibiza. As you descend into Cala Vadella, you will be in awe of the breathtaking views of this gorgeous, protected and peaceful bay surrounded by pine-clad hills. Cala Vadella is a 10-minute drive from the charming town of San Jose and is close to the renowned beaches of Cala Conta and Cala Bassa where the sunsets are totally mesmerizing.

Casa Demuth is a bright, family-friendly villa perched on the hillside. The villa offers superior modern comfort. The outside spaces are superb with a gorgeous infinity swimming pool surrounded with deluxe loungers, wonderful sofa seating and sheltered alfresco dining space which includes a wood-fired barbecue. You can relax among the colour bougainvillea and other flowers, enjoying the generous gardens and the beautiful views across the rooftops to the sparkling turquoise waters of the Mediterranean.

Inside, the open plan living space is delightful with corner seating decorated with bright and beautiful cushions plus a smart TV, PlayStation 3 and Wii games for your enjoyment. This is a very sociable space with modern art brightening the walls and an open fireplace providing atmosphere. The kitchen is fairly rustic and open to the living space.

The modern bedroom accommodation is versatile and consists of a double room, two twin bedrooms where the beds can be next to each other, creating huge beds and a single bedroom with access to the terrace. The single bed can be moved into one of the twins if you have three children wanting to share. The villa has two smart and modern bathrooms to share between the guests.

Casa Demuth is a lovely pick for a family or friends, especially those wanting some peace and quiet yet wanting to be able to walk to shops, restaurants and the beach.

Location & Local Information

This delightful villa is perfectly located to enjoy the restaurants, pretty beach and tranquil turquoise waters of the quaint, family-friendly beachside town of Cala Vadella. The beach facilities include sun loungers, parasols, restaurants, bars, foot showers, lifeguards, toilets and disabled access. There are watersports, including pedalos, kayaks, stand-up paddleboards, boat rental, boat trips, and there is a dive school. It has a peaceful ambience, and as the sun goes down, it is lit up by the captivating sunsets. It is a popular anchoring spot for private yachts wanting to watch the romantic sundown.

Close to Casa Demuth is the charming town of San Jose in the foothills of Sa Talaia, the highest mountain on the island which measures 475m. San Jose is the 'capital' of the area that goes by the same name. The main street is dominated by its impressive church where you can sit under the shade of the trees for a peaceful people-watch. The town boasts a very good selection of restaurants and shops and a fabulous Saturday morning market where around 20 stalls offer local, and organic produce including fruit, vegetables, home-made bread and pastries and local artists sell paintings, ceramics and sculptures.

The wonderful Cala Conta Beach has two main coves, one backed by a rugged Jurassic coastline and the other by picturesque sand dunes. The beach has several welcoming bars and restaurants and offers the most spectacular views, particularly at sunset. Cala Contita is Cala Conta's little sister beach and just south of that is the famous, mythical 'Rave Cave'. This is home to the Ibiza Rave in Cave parties and holistic yoga sessions. On the hill above Cala Codolar, is Ibiza-Henge, a monument with 13 huge Basalt columns arranged in a semi-circle which vaguely resembles Stonehenge.

Cala Bassa is another of the gorgeous coves on this glorious west coast. It is surrounded by ancient, gnarled Sabina woodland and boasts the upmarket Cala Bassa Beach Club. The beach club has a number of restaurants offering Ibizan, creative fusion, oriental and gourmet dishes. Its trendy spaces, including an exclusive Taittinger Lounge, are shaded by ancient juniper trees. DJ's play a mix of lounge, chill-out and house music and you can soak up the sun's rays on swanky lounges and in cabanas. You really need to book a table or sun lounger though as it is extremely popular.

San Antonio is the fast-living neighbour of these special coves. San Antonio is brimming with thriving sunset bars, electric nightclubs and a vast range of water activities. The Sunset Strip is legendary. Tourists listen to the latest summer sounds and watch the vivid sun sink whilst sipping delicious cocktails.
