Location & Local Information

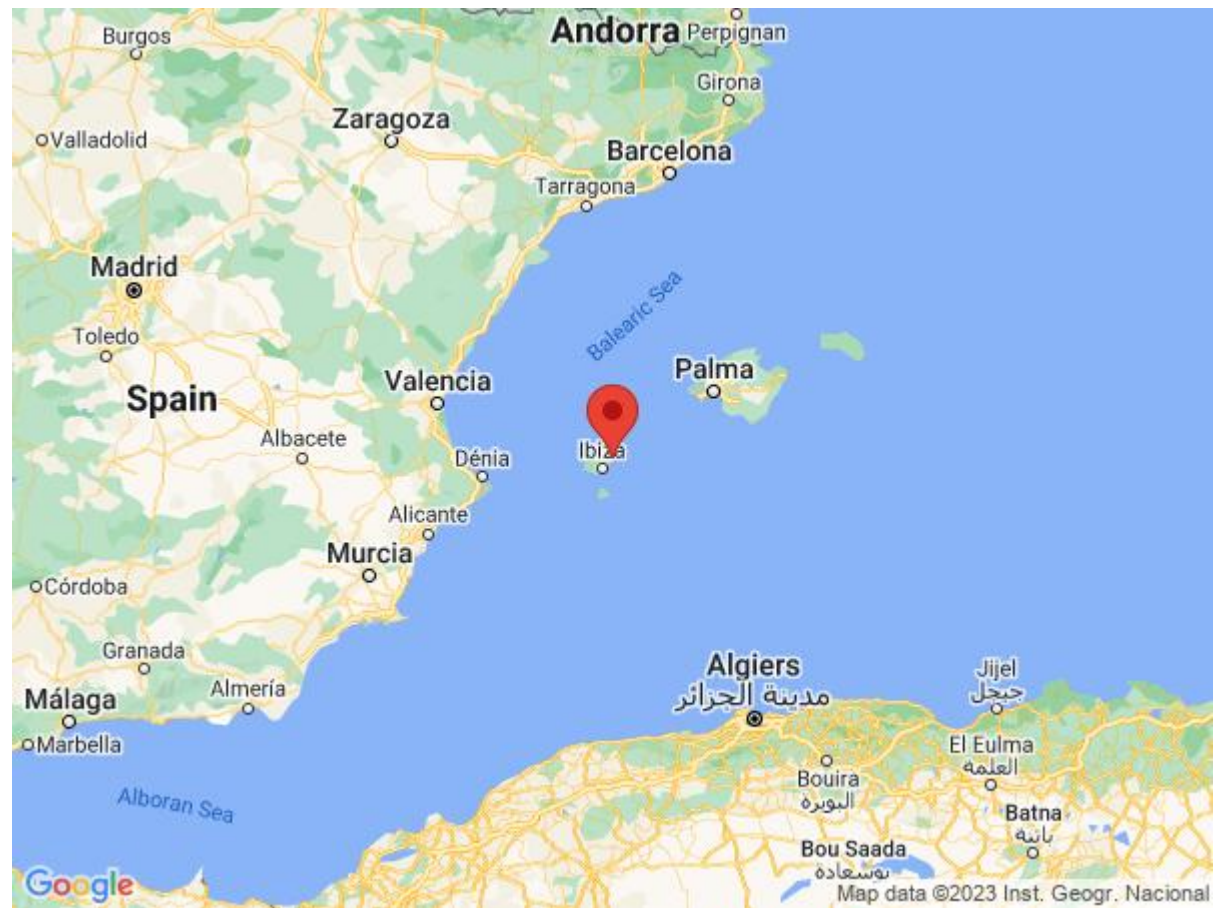

Santa Eulalia's pretty promenade runs the whole length of the beach and is adorned with miniature gardens, swaying palm trees and a large fountain. You will reach Mariner's Beach at one end where the only river in the whole of the Balearics runs into the sea. You can take a blissful river walk to the Roman bridge and to the little beach of Calo de S'Alga. There are two main streets in the town which are brimming with gorgeous boutiques, art galleries and cosy cafes and restaurants where you can watch the world go by. You will often see strolling musicians and handicraft stalls. The atmosphere is intoxicating. The yacht marina is very stylish and elegant with gorgeous floating palaces of your dreams. You can take small ferry boats to the nearby beaches, the colourful hippy market at Es Cana and to the amazing sister island of Formentera. There are some fantastic countryside restaurants within easy reach including Can Muson de sa Vila and Bambuddha, which is like a temple for fine dining.

Punta Arabi, at Es Cana, is the oldest and biggest hippy market on Ibiza with over 500 artisans, designers and craftsmen selling goods from all over the world. You will find handmade and second-hand items as well as delicious food stalls, live music, entertainment and lots of opportunities to learn about the authentic Ibiza culture. There is a special children's area where youngsters can make flower crowns, create their own t-shirts and get their face painted. It is a great excursion for the whole family!

Cala Llonga, just south of Santa Eulalia, is delightful with a magnificent silver sanded beach surrounded by pine-clad hills. It is a complete mini-resort with many restaurants, cafes, bars, shops and a weekly market.

You may want to travel inland to discover hidden villages, silent churches, lovely hillsides and vineyards. San Rafael is very pretty and worth a stop. There are some fabulous ceramic workshops which produce intricate handmade pottery and excellent rustic restaurants serving culinary feasts.

In Ibiza Town, you should visit the World Heritage-listed Dalt Vila and the modern Marina Botafoch. Dalt Vila, which overlooks the town, is a treasure trove of history, mystery and discoveries spanning 2500 years. The narrow, winding cobbled streets offer magnificent views from the breaks in the high ramparts and are lined with art galleries, restaurants and shops. The Contemporary Art Museum is excellent. The imposing Cathedral of Nuestra Senora de las Nieves sits in its majesty with views as far as Formentera. You may also want to visit the renowned super-club Pacha.

What we love

- It is great to have a car to explore the whole island and its 80 beaches, but it is also wonderful to be able to walk straight into the town for dinner or a day on the beach
- Villa Odisea is very spacious. The stunning design makes it incredibly bright and there are quite a number of terraces to take an evening cocktail or a cup of coffee!
- It is worth visiting the north of the island to see the lovely beaches there too!

What you should know...

- Ibiza's holistic spa and relaxation scene is renowned so it is a good idea to plan some yoga or therapeutic beauty and body treatments. You could visit Aguas de Ibiza or Insoltel Fenicia Prestige in Santa Eulalia or one of the other fabulous spas such as Pure Seven at Cala Conta, Hacienda Na Xamena at Puerto de San Miguel, Ibiza Gran Hotel in Ibiza Town or Atzaro at San Lorenzo
- One of the bedrooms is on the ground floor of this villa. It may be very helpful if you have someone less mobile within your holiday group
- You do not need to hire a car at this villa unless you want to explore the island
