

Casa Agaro

Region: Lloret de Mar Sleeps: 8

Overview

Casa Agaro is a sleek and modern house located in Font de Sant Llorenç, just outside Lloret de Mar. The property is nestled in the hills and boasts gorgeous views of the surrounding landscape and sea, with a private pool and terrace making good use of the vistas. Able to accommodate eight guests across the four bedrooms, Casa Agaro is an amazing home for those seeking some serenity whilst exploring the famous coast.

The villa's stylish modern interior is very sleek, with clean lines and chic furnishings making it a pleasure to relax in. It has been designed to maximise the views, with big windows at every opportunity framing the landscape, whilst also flooding the spaces with natural light. As you enter the villa on the first floor you will be naturally drawn to the open plan living and dining area. With fantastic views this is a great space to hang out in throughout the day. The living room is occupied with a large 'L shaped' sofa and television, making for a cosy spot. Behind the sofa, a dining table can seat all the guests, here you can enjoy long meals together. This relaxing space also has access to the surrounding terrace. Walking from the dining table, to the adjacent kitchen, budding chefs will be in for a treat. The stylish kitchen is fully equipped, including a huge fridge freezer and lots of workspace. The breakfast bar has a couple of stools and is a really great spot to catch up on the news with a coffee.

The first bedroom is also on the first floor and has two single beds. The remaining three bedrooms are all on the ground floor. Compromising of two double bedrooms and another twin single bedroom, each bedroom has access to the outdoor terrace, so you can race to the pool in the mornings! The bedrooms continue the modern theme, they are simple in design but offer a comfortable space to relax in.

The villa's exterior only adds to the allure, the private pool is wonderful. Framed with a wooden deck, relaxing around the pool is a great way to spend a lazy afternoon. You can even fire up the barbecue and cook up a big meal to share in the outdoor dining area, the barbecue even has an outdoor kitchen, making it a breeze.

Location & Local Information

Casa Agaro is perched in the hills above Cala Canyelles beach. The peaceful residential area is ideal for those seeking a quiet retreat whilst on holiday. The villa is about a kilometre from the beach itself, here there is also a handful of restaurants, all within walking distance. For a wide range of amenities and shops, the nearby town of Lloret de Mar has it all covered, just four kilometres away.

The local beach, Cala Canyelles is great for spending some time by the sea. Away from the crowds of Lloret de Mar, the beach is popular with locals and other guests in the area. The gorgeous sand is ideal for a little doze in the sun, with the crystal clear waters inviting you to take a refreshing swim. The beach has a handful of bars and restaurants where you can enjoy the freshest fish and a cool beer. If you want to explore the regions rugged beauty, there are lots of walks available. Many of these paths follow the coastline and offer amazing views up the coast. Some of the coasts beaches and coves can only be reached by sea or foot, giving you the chance to find some secluded spaces you can spend the day at. The tourist office at Lloret de Mar will be able to help you plan a trip, so be sure to pay them a visit.

Lloret de Mar has plenty of activities to offer, the town has lots of bar and restaurants suiting all moods. Known for its popular nightlife, there are even some late night clubs for anyone wanting to dance the night away! The restaurants offer a variety of cuisines, but we highly recommend you try out the local tapas, the region is famous for its seafood tapas, and for good reason! The town is also home to some amazing historic sites, with archaeologists discovering several ancient Iberian settlements you can explore there remains today. Turó Rodó is one of these sites and now also features a replica Iberian home so you can get a sense of what ancient life was like in this remarkable place.
