

Villa Huni

Region: Emerald Maldives Sleeps: 4

Overview

In the tranquil waters of the Indian Ocean, the Emerald Resort offers a white sandy retreat, with all the little luxuries you have been dreaming of. A wooden pier extends out into the water, with beautiful villas hovering over the glassy surface. In an exclusive position at the end of the pier, Villa Huni sits elegantly above the water; an exquisite villa with breath-taking views across the ocean.

Sleeping four guests, this spacious villa is unlike any other, with a pristine private swimming pool and a décor that effortlessly blends modern and traditional Maldivian aesthetics. As you arrive and pull open the front door, an air of complete serenity settles over the villa, with indoor-outdoor living spaces perfect for immersing yourself in this stunning location.

At the centre of the villa is a large lounge area, home to a vast sofa with more than enough space for four of you to settle down together. There is a spacious dining table for everyone to gather around and a bar equipped to keep you refreshed through the day. Partially open, there is a seamless barrier between indoor and outdoor, with unobstructed views stretching out from every angle. The highlight of this bright room is the swimming pool, which stretches between the lounge and the terrace, creating an entirely unique space.

The villa's two bedrooms mirror each other, positioned either side of the lounge. Both boast king-size beds and sliding glass doors to the terrace, so you enjoy views from the comfort of your covers, embracing every element of romance the Maldives has to offer. Each bedroom has a private bathroom, equally as elegant as the rest of the villa, equipped with large bathtubs and walk-through showers.

Outside, Villa Huni offers the same peaceful atmosphere, with the vibrant turquoise of the ocean stretching out before you. The private pool takes pride of place at the centre, bordered by sun loungers, a day bed and another large dining table where you can sit together sharing conversation and laughter away from any worries of day to day life. Stairs take you down to the water, where you can swim, snorkel or simply dip your toes in, taking a quiet moment to reflect on this beautiful natural landscape. Villa Huni is the perfect place for families and couples to enjoy everything the Maldives has to offer.

Popular with couples, honeymooners and families all the same, there is so much to do in this resort, be it a holiday of indulgence and luxury or a chance to explore the ocean and its vibrant sea life. The best way to get around the resort is by bike and you can cycle the whole way up the pier to your villa at the end. Of course, for those who prefer not to cycle, there are other options available to you.

The Emerald Resort is picture-perfect; a blend of soft white sandy beaches, clear-blue sea, coconut palms and turquoise lagoons. Located a short transfer from Malé Airport, it isn't long after landing that you will feel the warm sand between your toes! You can take a 40-minute seaplane to the Emerald Resort or choose to take a domestic flight to the Ifuru Domestic Airport followed by a speedboat ride to the resort, taking just over an hour.

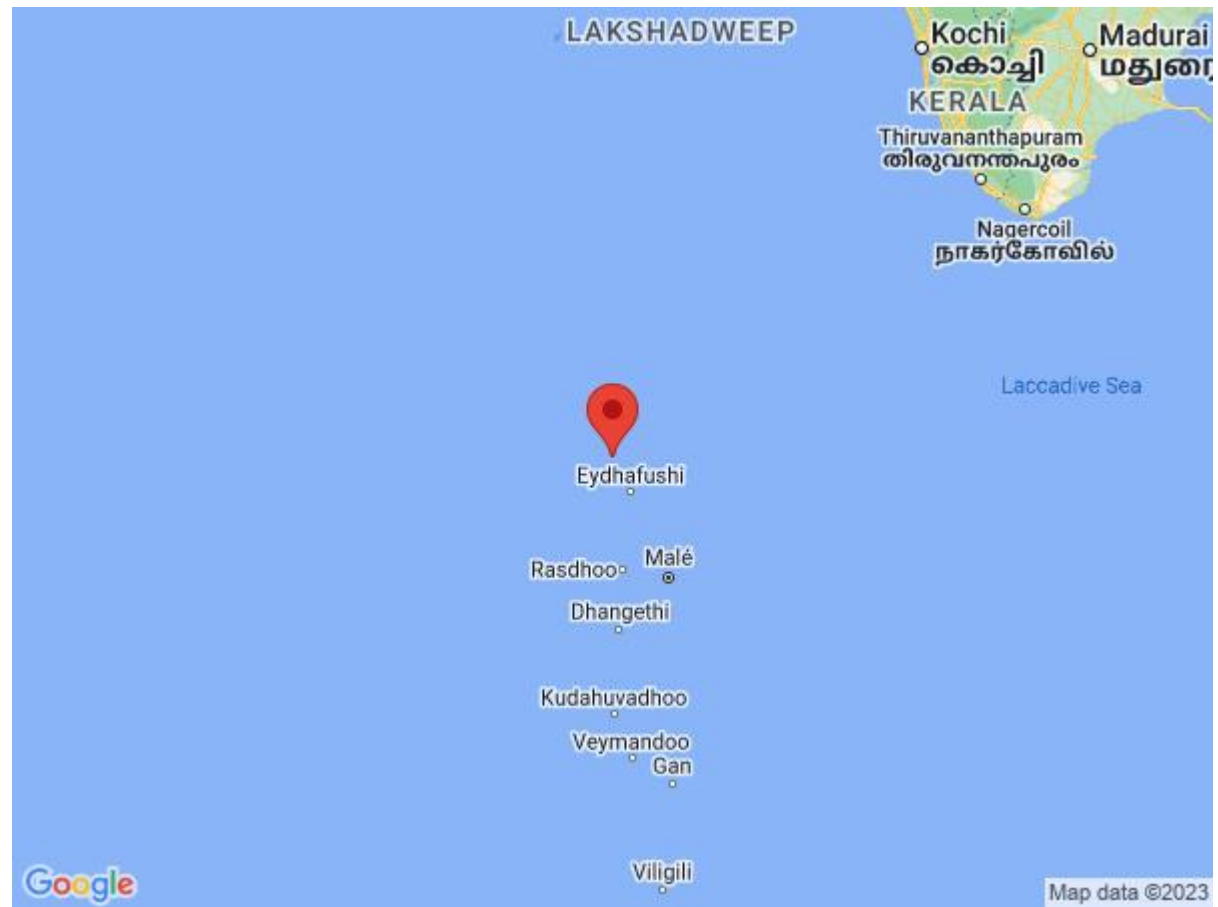

For culinary delights, there are four restaurants and two bars within the resort. The bars serve up fresh coconuts, juices and cocktails, with enticing menus at each restaurant inspired by the natural ingredients apparent in the region. With cuisines ranging from International and Mediterranean, to Latin American and Asian, there is something for everyone's palette, with a perfect place for every occasion.

With the ocean around you, we imagine it won't take long for you to dive in. You can swim directly from the villa, or off the island beaches. The resort diving centre is very popular, offering options for experienced and novice divers alike. For an adventure, you can even try to obtain your own PADI license, led by the certified PADI professionals at the resort.

For those seeking to stay fit, the state-of-the-art Technogym, tennis courts, paddle courts and personalised training programs should add some vibrancy to your day to day routine.
