Families will return from their stay at Villa Aluvi with magical holiday memories. This sizeable, idyllic over water villa is located on the resort's stunning lagoon. It boasts its own spacious private deck with a gorgeous plunge pool, a double day bed, deluxe loungers, alfresco dining and three over water hammocks. There are also two beautiful bedrooms, one with a gorgeous ensuite shower room and the master with a sensual bathroom with a freestanding bath and a separate shower. The ensuite shower room has a fantastic glass floor panel, so intriguing for children. Villa Aluvi is 172 sqm, a perfect space for a couple and two children. The interior styling of the villa is fabulous with characterful, vaulted, beamed ceilings, a stunning, shiny hardwood floor and supremely comfortable beds. The master suite enjoys a very romantic, huge bed and the second bedroom offers twin beds. The beds are adorned with luxurious linens and fabulous soft furnishings. The cool mellow tones of the villa are beautifully accented with vibrant orange colour pop cushions. Guests can lounge in their suite or outside on the huge day bed, luxury loungers or the hammocks listening to their favourite tunes on the villa's Harman Kardon surround sound system. The generous master bathroom is very romantic with a perfectly positioned standalone bath, a shower, luxurious toiletries, fluffy towels and an intimate ambience. Floor-to-ceiling doors the whole length of the villa open up to the deck, drowning this special place in natural sunlight and offering the most spectacular views of the horizon. Guests can even take a bath while enjoying the superb vistas. For refreshments, a Nespresso coffee machine and tea making facilities are provided and if you purchase an all inclusive package, you will also enjoy a minibar full of lovely drinks and treats. The deck is an enchanting, dreamy space with a gorgeous plunge pool and beautiful furniture. The comfortable day bed faces out to the glistening waters, a special spot where you can watch the sun go down. The hammocks lie over the water where you can listen to the gentle lapping of the turquoise waves. The loungers are the perfect spot to enjoy your holiday read, sipping chilled white wine and enjoying the dreamy panorama. There is also a shaded alfresco dining space where you can enjoy your morning coffee or meals. Steps lead down from Villa Aluvi's deck into the water. Such bliss!

Location & Local Information

Ayada Maldives is located in one of the southern atolls in the Maldives. You will arrive at this paradise via Male airport. From there you can either take another domestic flight to the KDM (Kaadedhdhoo) airport in the Gaafu Dhaalu atoll followed by a 50 minute speedboat journey or you can now fly from Male to the new Maavarulu (RUL) airport and take a faster speedboat. Either way, the delights of Ayada Maldives will certainly make your journey worthwhile.

Guests enjoy a wonderful range of curated resort excursions to explore this magical area. You just need to contact your butler to arrange your preferred trips. These include private snorkeling on the sensational house reef and fishing at sunset on a traditional Maldivian wooden boat. Ayada's chef will happily cook your catch. There are glass-bottomed boat tours to explore the underwater world. You can be taken to a nearby deserted island for a romantic Robinson Crusoe experience with a delicious picnic. You can also visit local islands and see textiles being woven, drink fresh coconut and saying hello to a few of the locals. Other treats are picnics or dinners on a nearby sandbank, island safaris to discover the amazing coral reefs and dolphin spotting trips.

Ayada is a brilliant surf destination with astounding local waves including Tiger Stripes, Antiques, Love Charms, Two Ways, Five Islands and Blue Bowls. A little further, you can surf Beacons and Castaways. Guests can buy passes to ride the waves with professionals. With over 3000 coral reefs and free flowing tides, the Maldives is heaven for divers. With over 1000 species of fish, coral and other marine life and the virtual isolation of the Gaafu Dhaalu atoll, the underwater seascape is undisturbed and untouched. Guests can discover scuba diving or continue their experiences.

This astonishing resort allows guests to journey through an unparalleled culinary experience. The Ocean Breeze Over Water Restaurant and Bar is named after its breathtaking location. Mizu Japanese Teppanyaki Grill offers delicious fish, meat and vegetarian dishes that are skillfully cooked in front of you. Kai offers an exquisite range of Asian and Far Eastern delicacies whilst being hidden away in a tropical paradise. The poolside Zero Degree Restaurant and Bar offers a wonderful mix of food and cocktails. Magu is the main restaurant showcasing a delicious international buffet with themes and cooking stations. Twice a week, guests can enjoy delicious feasts from the grill with their feet in the surf at Sea Salt, the beach barbecue. For some Turkish treats you can head to the stylish Ottoman Lounge and lovers of cheese and wine can head to Ile de Joie, the cheese and wine bar set over the lagoon. They also serve tipples of fine label cognacs, premium whiskies and other fabulous digestives and aperitifs.

Ayada Maldives is blessed with tropical wildlife which you will enjoy during your stay. Black tip and white tip reef shark are commonly found in the lagoon and close to the reef. Hammerheads and nurse shark are also found along with stingrays and plenty of crabs. Herons, cranes and seagulls are amongst the birdlife and during snorkeling and diving excursions, you will meet many Hawkbill and Green turtles. Harmless fruit bats hang from the trees around the jungle areas making their distinctive squeaking sound. Oriental Garden lizards are in abundance.

AySpa enjoys brilliant facilities including heated and cold plunge pools, steam rooms, saunas, treatment suites, a hamman, steam showers, an outdoor courtyard with a sunken bath, a hairdresser and manicure and pedicure salons. You can indulge yourself and feel so refreshed.

If you are planning a wedding, Ayada boasts some exceptional locations including its own wedding chapel, its gorgeous beach or its traditional Maldivian boat. A dedicated wedding planner will make all of the arrangements.
