

Villa Maestosa

Region: Lucca & Pisa Sleeps: 14

Overview

Once belonging to a 17th century count as his summer residence, Villa Maestosa exudes history, character and charm in the most magnificent parkland, in the hills just outside of Lucca, one of northern Tuscany's most exquisite towns.

The setting of this elegant abode is quite special – ornate Italian gardens, century-old trees, a sweet-scented jasmine pergola and the sound of trickling fountains as you stroll along the paths and lawns. A stream runs into two small lakes, a perfect spot for relaxing as the swans gracefully swim by. Then of course there's the delightful swimming pool, ideal for long summer days and beautifully flood-lit at night.

Step inside and discover the unique character of each of the floors. Walk up the villa's grand steps up to the first floor living room, a place of charm and beauty with its frescoed walls and ornate furnishings. Next door the romantic music room features a piano by the balcony whilst a jacuzzi bathroom adds another touch of luxury. On this level there are three grand bedrooms, each with king-size beds, air-conditioning and en suite shower rooms.

There are four further bedrooms on the top floor, again with air-conditioning and en suite shower rooms, yet these ones more traditional in style, showcasing Tuscan character with wood-beams, old-fashioned furnishings and pretty little windows peeping out to the glorious grounds.

Finally, there's the comfortable ground floor with its dining rooms, lounge, library and Tuscan kitchen, as well as steps leading down to the cellar, a perfect place for family fun playing cards and table football whilst enjoying pizza from the wood-burning oven.

Feast with family and friends in one of the two al-fresco dining areas, perhaps prepared by the villa's chef who is available for breakfast and either lunch or an evening meal. Maid service is also included most days and there are all sorts of extras that can be arranged from cookery classes and wine tasting to personalised itineraries and private tours when exploring the local region.

Indeed, there is so much to discover across this alluring part of northern Tuscany. Start off in Lucca with its gorgeous historic centre and fascinating city walls, then visit pretty nearby villages such as Collodi, San Miniato or the spa-town of Montecatini-Terre. Pisa and Florence are also ideal for amazing day trips or head to the coast for beaches, watersports and summer lidos in Viareggio, just half an hour away.

If you are seeking Tuscan nature at its very best, explore the landscapes of Monte Pisano, head north for kayaking and hiking in Garfagna. Or simply spend time at Villa Maestosa and relax in the historic and tranquil gardens of this majestic home.
