Location & Local Information

Villa Devaneio is located on a vast, magical estate, 2km from the Algarve coastline in Vale do Lobo, just outside of Vilamoura. The location is amazing with the very best of Portugal's golf clubs close by plus excellent beaches, horse riding, tennis, a casino, boutique shopping and excellent gastronomic offerings. There are also some lovely villages and towns to visit.

Loule is very popular for a day trip. On Saturdays, there is a farmer's market and gipsy market in addition to the busy and colourful Moorish inspired covered market. You can buy regional handicrafts, local produce and freshly caught fish at the covered market and enjoy Loule's many beautiful historical buildings including the Gothic Igreja Matriz Church and Loule Castle.

One of the prettiest churches in the whole of the Algarve is the 17th century Sao Lourenco Church with stunning azulejo telling the story of the patron saint. It has many more features.

Than most churches of its size including its bell tower, the neighbouring town of Almancil is famous for its pottery shops and workshops.

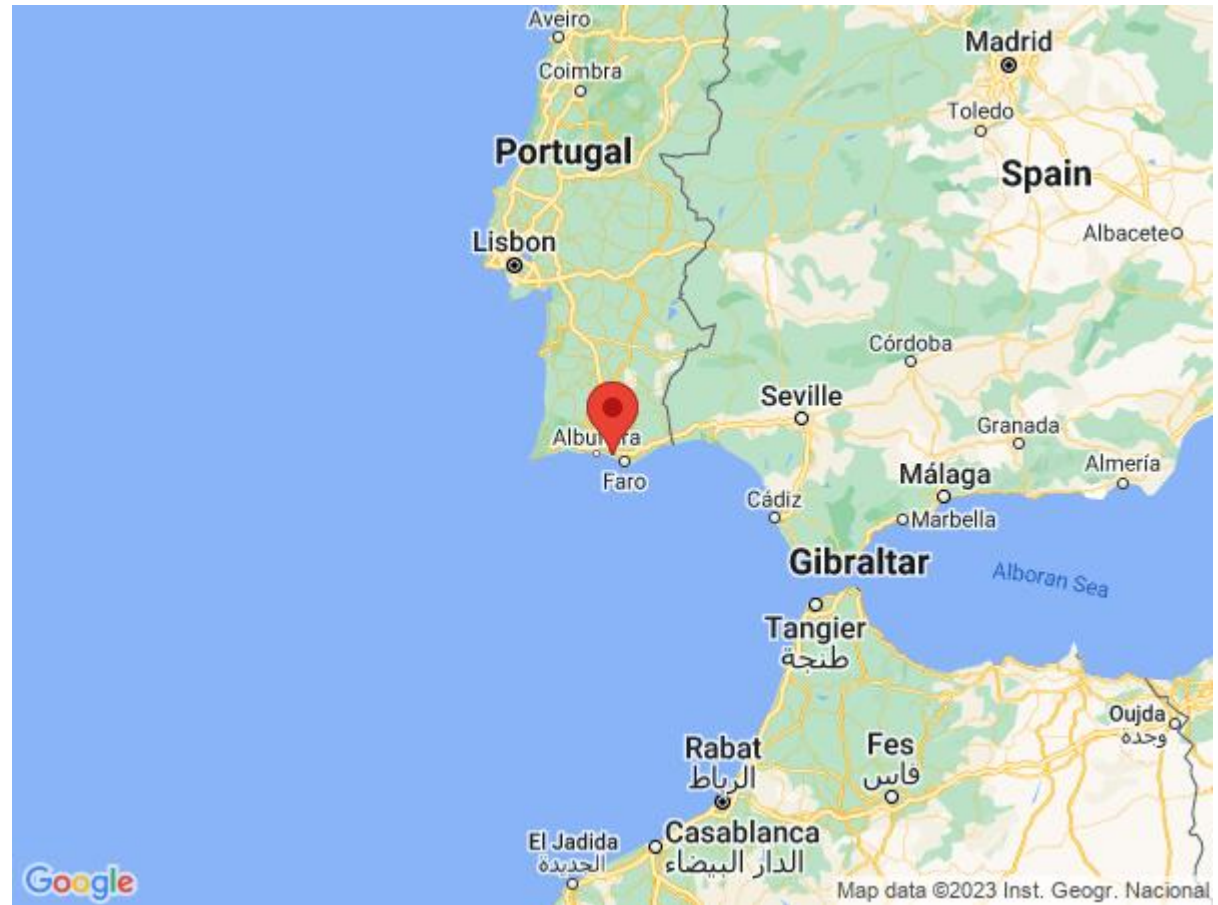

Vilamoura is upmarket, modern and sophisticated and bustling with tourists. If you fancy a flutter or a chance to rub shoulders with the footballers who have villas nearby, you can visit the casino which is located just on outskirts in the Quarteira suburb. The classy marina is brimming with luxury yachts and is the main hub of entertainment. The shopping is excellent with local craft stores as well as the most prestigious international brands. The dining scene is amazing, with an incredible choice of upmarket restaurants. You can take many boat trips from the marina to enjoy the dramatic coastline as well as to fish, partake in water sports or enjoy the sunsets. You may even spot some dolphins.

The beaches are absolutely amazing. One of the most popular is Falesia Beach which stretches for miles. Praia do Vale de Lobo is excellent and is surrounded by its red cliffs on top of which is one of the most famous and photographed golf courses in the area. The beach is ideal for long walks as well as days enjoying the sea. Many of the beaches offer watersports including sailing, windsurfing, jet-skiing, parasailing and the usual inflatable rides.
