

Copper Lodge

Region: Dorset Sleeps: 4

Overview

Copper Lodge, named to reflect another element of the surrounding natural environment, due to the fact that copper is found on the Island. The copper will go green, but in the meantime enjoy the unusual red copper surrounding the lodges. If guests can manage to tear themselves away from the spectacular scenery and sea views, the contemporary home makes the ideal base for those wanting to explore the magnificent Jurassic coastline and all that the beautiful county of Dorset has to offer.

Brand new for 2020, Copper Lodge is part of the luxury Clifftops development, five luxury lodges nestled into the Portland stone cliffs, on the edge of the Dorset Castle Estate. With the accommodation set across two levels, Copper Lodge can comfortably accommodate up to four guests across two well-appointed bedrooms. The living space is open-plan and features a bespoke fireplace, a Samsung smart TV and a fully-equipped kitchen with dining facilities. Large windows allow natural light to flood in and guests to make the most of the spectacular coastal views. The king-size master bedroom features its own en-suite facilities, while guest staying in the second bedroom, which can be set up with either a super-king double or twin single beds on request, can make use of the luxurious family bathroom.

Outside, after action-packed days spent exploring this wonderful part of Dorset and the surrounding area, the private terrace is the perfect place to enjoy a quiet beverage while admiring the stunning sea views.

Location & Local Information

Copper Lodge is situated on the Isle of Portland, the most southernmost point on the Jurassic coast, a tied island joined to the mainland by Chesil beach. Despite being relatively small in size, there is plenty to see, do and explore without even leaving the isle, enjoy a visit to the 16th century Portland Castle, Rufus Castle or Portland Bill Lighthouse or simply choose to spend afternoons lazing in the sun on Church Ope Cove.

The seaside town of Weymouth is just a 20-minute drive away, a resort hugely popular with families and it's easy to see why with its golden sand beaches, sand sculptures, crazy golf and Sea Life Centre. Further afield, the popular market town of Lyme Regis is an hours' drive away while dramatic West Bay, made famous from the ITV series Broadchurch, is just 50-minutes away.

What we love

- Enjoy the impressive sea views from the comfort of your private terrace - heaven!
- Fabulous location on the Isle of Portland, ideal for exploring the rugged Jurassic coastline and just twenty minutes from exciting Weymouth where a wide variety of family-friendly attractions can be found
- One of the bedrooms can be set up with twin single beds on request - ideal for siblings or friends to share!

What you should know...

- The lodge is part of a development of five and so does have neighbours, please be respectful in terms of noise on the terrace in the evenings
- Due to the high quality nature of the interiors, the lodge is better suited to older children than toddlers
- Please note that due to the access, the lodge is less suited to guests with mobility issues
